FACE NEW FLOOD MENACE

GERMAN DELEGATION TO MEET LEAGUE

Alice Longworth Says

(Special To The News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 17.—The rows and rivalries that wage inside the Cabinet are to a large extent blanketed by alarums and excursions in Europe and the skirmishes of the political campaign. But the chronic differences between the run of the mine Democrats and the New Dealers go on as usual.

Mr. Ickes, the "terrible tempered Mr. Bang" of the president's official family, has just been bested by Attorney General Cummings in a case to determine which has jurisdiction over the civil affairs of the Virgin Islands. Mr. Cummings has been upheld, in spite of the accusation by lawyers of the Department of the Interior that the Department of Justice is "a usurper."

In California there is a heated dispute about the sailors' strike. Miss Perkins, of Labor, says it is merely an ordinary strike, while Mr. Roper, of Commerce, calls it a mutiny.

Mr. Roosevelt must be looking forward to that fishing trip with considerable relief.

PA NEWC OBSERVES

The weather had a hard time deciding what to do during the night. First it rained, then it snowed, then it sleeted, and rained, and snowed. Towards morning it turned a little colder and the snow predominated.

When George Waltenbaugh, of North Cedar street, threw some feed out for the birds this morning, he was amazed at the great variety of birds which gathered at the scene. In addition to the sparrows, he stated there were starlings, robins and red birds, and some lively scraps took place.

Instead of gathering up the accumulation of ashes which covers most of the hill streets of the city and dumping it, street department employes might store it away for use next year. Tons of ashes which were placed on the streets last winter to aid motorists, still remain on the streets.

"'Twas a lovely day to plant sweet peas!"

Today's heavy snow storm created havoc with traffic conditions. Especially on unpaved streets many cars were mired and stuck in the ditches. The ground under the heavy snow was soft and auto wheels without chains didn't make much headway.

Many patrons of the Highland car line this morning hiked to town. The cars were tied up because of automobiles getting stuck on the Highland avenue hill. At one time all of the Highland street cars were downtown, because of the fact that autos had traffic o the hill tied up. Automobiles were unable to make much progress up the hill when forced to stop for any reason, and they were zigzagged all over the hill at one time.

One high school youth was sure glad to see the ground covered with snow, when he arose this morning. For some time this youth had hoped to earn enough money to purchase

Hitler Accepts Invitation To League Session

German Delegation Will Arrive In London For Parley Thursday

SITUATION LOOKS MORE PEACEFUL

Personal Envoy Of Hitler To Head Delegation To London Meeting

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

LONDON, March 17.—The German government has definitely accepted the League of Nations council's invitation to debate the Rhineland crisis in London, the German embassy here announced today.

The German delegation will arrive Thursday and will be headed by Col. Joachim Von Ribbentrop, personal envoy of Chancellor Adolf Hitler, it was stated.

Secret Meeting Of League

London, Mar. 17.—Germany was reported willing to have "ultimate" consideration of the Hitler peace proposals as the League of Nations council convened in secret session this afternoon.

A private meeting of the council was changed abruptly into a secret one, it was understood, in order to allow Foreign Minister Anthony Eden of Great Britain to read a communication from Germany

Father Coughlin's Studio Is Burned

Fire Destroys The Old Shrine Of The Little Flower At Royal Oak, Mich.

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

ROYAL OAK, Mich., Mar. 17.—A spectacular fire fanned by a high wind today completel. destroyed the old Shrine of the Little Flower here and the broadcasting studios of Rev. Father Charles E. Coughlin, the radio priest.

Damage was estimated at $40,000, and many priceless relics also may have been consumed by the flames.

Four fire companies kept the blaze from spreading to the new stone Shrine of the Little Flower and a convent on the grounds.

The old shrine was a frame church. It had since been replaced by the new $1,000,000 shrine but still had been in use and the broadcasting studios of the priest also were housed in it.

Origin of the blaze was unknown.

HAILE SELASSIE IS REPORTED AT BATTLE FRONT

(International News Service)

ADDIS ABABA, Mar. 17.—The Ethiopian government, soon after announcing Italians had attacked Quoram with mustard gas from bombing planes, said a big battle was under way at Amba Alagi, important northern front stronghold captured by the Italians several weeks ago.

Emperor Haile Selassie himself was said to be commanding the Ethiopian forces in the conflict, according to advices received here. Both sides were reported to have suffered heavy losse..

Cannot Park In Downtown Section

B. F. Butler, director of streets, today issued a bulletin to drivers of motor vehicles warning them against parking cars in the dowtnown section beginning at o'clock tonight.

Butler said that street employes, aided by others to be employed, will clean snow from curbs and in-takes to prevent a dangerous condition should a freeze come.

Sometime ago the street department put this method of eradicating damage and it proved successful.

Wednesday Is Suburban Day In New Castle

St. Patrick's Day calls for celebrations, shamrock bedecked parties, a "bit of the ould sod" and the planting of sweet peas. It also calls for the announcement this year of Suburban Day in New Castle which occurs on Wednesday, March 18.

It may take a bit of doing to get sweet peas down through the blanket of snow today but it won't require much effort to throw a party, and even less effort to announce that tomorrow, Wednesday, March 18, is Suburban Day. In spite of weather, politics, or the state of the Union, Suburban Day is a regular affair in New Castle and March 18 is it.

It is the day when suburban and city shoppers get a chance to come down town and get a load of legitimate bargains in every commodity needed in a household.

The merchants co-operating in the affair are willing to forego usual profit in the building of good will. The result is that everybody wins, the shopper in getting bargains, the merchant in attracting customers to his store, and turning over a volume of merchandise.

Tomorrow is the day, Wednesday, March 18. The stores co-operating in the affair will be so designated and in any one of them bargains are to be found.

Downie Gives Orders To Cancel Street Paving Projects

Blames Inactivity And Indecision Of New Castle Council For Move

Federal Funds For W.P.A. Share Of Work Had Been Provided

New Castle's structure of proposed street improvements under the Works Progress Administration apparently crashed today with orders for the cancellation by Director J. Vale Downie of the Program "A" entailing an expenditure of $248,000 of federal funds in the improvement of eight city streets. Programs "B" and "C" are not so far advanced as Program "A", but they too, will be scrapped under the decision of Mr. Downie today.

"We are tired waiting upon the city to decide what it is going to do," said Mr. Downie today. "Over a year ago these projects were proposed, the engineering has been done upon all three programs, the property owners have signed for them, at least 51 per cent of owners and frontage, the money is allocated for Program "A" and still council refuses to act. As a special consideration in Program "A" we were able to get $9,000 over and above the regular 4.2 per cent al-

Baldwin And Messner Quit

Withdraw As G. O. P. Candidates For State Office At "Last-Minute"

PARTY BATTLE IS ELIMINATED

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, Mar. 17.—Organization candidates of both the Republican and Democratic parties for state treasurer and auditor general today were assured of nomination in the April primaries as the result of last-minute "harmony" developments in the G. O. P. ticket.

An expected primary battle within the Republican party in the only state-wide elective office was averted when Frank E. Baldwin and Otto F. Messner, candidates for nomination as state treasurer and auditor general respectively, withdrew their nominating petitions. Their withdrawal was followed by that of Stanley M. Yetter, Wilkes-Barre, another candidate for auditor general, leaving the field wide open for the organization slate of E. Arthur Sweeny of Greensburg and Frank L. Pinola, Kingston.

Baldwin's withdrawal, filed with that of Messner just 20 minutes before the deadline for withdrawals, came as a surprise to many. Although it was generally believd Messner would eventually leave the race, there were indications Baldwin, veteran organization man and present auditor general, would fight to the last in demanding his advancement to the treasurer's post according to precedent.

Strange Mdivani Fate

PRINCE SERGE MDIVANI

Following the death of Prince Serge Mdivani, 33, at Delray Beach, Fla., from a kick of his polo pony, people are asking: "What fate pursues the Mdivanis?" His brother, Alexis, was killed in an automobile accident in Spain last year. Serge had been married to the wealthy Louise Astor Van Alen on Feb. 8. She had been the wife of his brother Alexis, who later wed Barbara Hutton and then was divorced by her. Serge had been the husband of Pola Negri and Mary McCormic previously.

Dog Law Enforcer Working In County

Arrives Today To Make A Check Up Of Dogs Following Cases Of Rabies

John A. Mateer, dog law enforcer from Armstrong county, arrived at the county treasurer's office this morning for a check up of the dogs in Lawrence county.

Mr. Mateer informed County Treasurer Joseph H. Hartland that there have been a number of cases of rabies in various counties and the department has instructed him to check his territory, which includes Butler, Lawrence and Armstrong counties.

In making his check up Mr. Mateer will see that dogs are licensed and that they are being taken care of properly by their owners. He states that he does not want to make any informations if it can be avoided. This being the case, it would be well to be sure that your dog has a license.

City firemen were called out shortly before noon today to clean the snow from the roof of the city building, where the heavy weight of the ten-inch fall endangered the old building.

Heavy Fall Of Snow Recorded During Night

TRAVEL PROVES HARD PROBLEM

Warm Atmosphere Causes Much Snow To Melt, Helping To Relieve Conditions

With a ten-inch fall of snow covering the highways of the city and surrounding district, state highway forces and employes of the railways and traction lines started to dig themselves out of the snow this morning.

State Highway Superintendent John B. Shaw stated this morning that his entire force of road workers with all the snow plows of the local station at their command took to the roads this morning to keep the main highways open.

Keep Roads Open.

While the snow was hard to handle because of its wetness, they were having no trouble in keeping the roads open, he stated, and conditions were not expected to be bad unless it turned colder and the snow started to drift.

Traction company employes were having a hard time keeping to their schedules, it was noticed this morning. Motorists would stall in the heavy snow and when the street cars were stopped on the hills it was almost impossible to get started again. Traffic was tied up on the Highland line for some time this morning, because of stalled autos.

People traveling dirt streets, which were unusually soft underneath the snow, were stalled, while others were hurled clear of the road and into yards and fields alongside, when they attempted to get out of the soft, deep ruts.

Indications this morning pointed to the snow continuing throughout the greater part of the day.

ZUK ADMITS HE COMMITTED CRIME

When the case of Dimitri Zuk, charged with the murder of his wife, Zina Zuk, was opened at Lawrence county court this morning, police officers who were called following the tragedy were called.

Policeman Wayne Sines told about being called to the Zuk home along with officers D. J. Thomas and William Tyrrell. When they arrived they went into the house by the front door. A woman yelled, "there he is" and pointed toward the back of the house, where the witness went. He found Zuk standing with his hands at his sides, bleeding profusely from the neck, and with the upper part of his body covered with blood.

Witness took Zuk to the New Castle hospital. On the way he asked Zuk what had happened, and he had replied in broken English

Call First Witnesses In Palmer Trial At Mercer Court

(Special To The News)

MERCER, Mar. 17.—Declaring that the state will prove that stains found on the clothing of Leroy Palmer, Grove City man, three hours after the murder of Howard Sidley, gas station proprietor, were caused by human blood, District Attorney Edwin C. Moon made his opening address to the jury this morning in the Mercer county court room, where Palmer is on trial for his life.

Delay Court Session

Although the terrific snowstorm which blocked many of the main highways of the county delayed the opening of court until 10 o'clock, the court room was filled by spectators by 8. Witnesses and attorneys were late in arriving because of the storm—the district attorney had been unable to get his automobile out of his garage and walked the mile and a half to the court house.

District Attorney Moon, in addressing the jury, called the Sidley death the "most brutal murder in the history of Mercer county." The youth-

Funeral Services For William Lind

Funeral services were conducted at Cleveland, O., on Monday afternoon for William Lind, who died there on Friday after a very short illness. Interment was made in Acacia cemetery, Cleveland.

Mr. Lind was well known in New Castle. His wife, Mrs. Meada Hartsuff, is a sister of O. J. H. Hartsuff, and Misses Dove and Carrie Hartsuff, of New Castle.

Conditions Delay Ashing Of Hills

Glenn R. Throop, city engineer, stated at 10 a. m. today that trucks laden with employes and ashes had been dispatched to the hills which would be ashed before noon.

He said that Streets Commissioner Carmi Glover had been unable to ash the streets earlier because the ashes would have been buried in the snow and it was decided best to wait until the snow was packed before scattering ashes.

Many Complications Faced In New Tax Plans Considered

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—Framers of the new corporate tax legislation have encountered so many difficulties and complications that it seemed today inevitable that many corporate enterprises will have to be exempted in whatever legislation ultimately is drawn.

This admission was made by Rep. Hill (D) of Washington, chairman of the ways and means sub-committee, which has been wrestling with the bill for days and making little progress.

Public hearings may be opened on the $792,000,000 measure next week, Hill said.

Third Flood Of Spring Develops In Pennsylvania

Threatens To Outdo Previous Floods Of Past Few Weeks

RIVERS RISING MOST RAPIDLY

High Water Stage Again Reached In Pittsburgh District

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

Western Pennsylvania today was threatened with its most disastrous flood since the high waters of 1907 which wrought untold millions in damage.

Still digging itself out of the havoc and destruction wrought by last week's floods, Pennsylvania today was caught full force by the spring's third flood which threatened to outdo the other two in violence and damage.

Fed by a continuous 48-hour rainfall, streams grew into raging torrents, plunging over their banks and again flooding homes and washing out highways. Beleaguered families again fled their water-logged homes while motorists in many sections found the going perilous.

A raging six-hour sleet storm near Kane crippled power lines and brought out all available crews.

Pittsburgh Warned

Pittsburgh was warned by the weather bureau to prepare for its worst flood in 12 years possibly exceeding the disastrous inundation of 1924. The stage at the point where the Allegheny and Monongahela join to form the Ohio was 25.6 feet this morning and still rising. A stage of 32 or 33 feet, seven or eight feet above the 25-foot flood stage, was predicted by tomorrow morning.

Charge All Strikers Not Taken Back

Veiled Threats Of Further Trouble In New York Elevator Strike

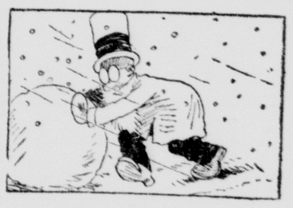

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—Veiled hints of a city-wide "general walkout" were heard today from officials of the building service employes union as a result of the alleged lockout of 2,000 elevator operators.

James J. Bambrick, local strike leader, charged that realty interests had broken faith with the agreement signed by the union and the realty advisory board, which brought to an end the 15-day strike of service employes, by refusing to take back all strikers.

He said he had conferred last night with 35 delegates from various metropolitan labor unions who were aroused over the treatment accorded the strikers.

Oh gentle spring, tra la tra la, what can I say on days like this, am I supposed to twang my harp and sing of love and heavenly bliss, am I supposed to raise my voice and sing of balmy days to come, well spring get this and get it straight, if you think that you're rather dumb. For all the things we should have seen, when we arose and looked about, instead we saw a fall of snow bedecking porch and eaves and spout. And so dear spring I'm much put out, you've got us in a wintry fix, may I suggest you change your ways, the weather's down to thirty six.

NEW STAR IS DISCOVERED

Super-Nova Is Reported Found

First Report Of Kind By Scientists In Past Thirty Years

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

PASADENA, Cal., Mar. 17.—A new star, the first super-nova reported in more than 30 years, has been discovered by scientists at Mt. Wilson observatory, it was announced here today.

Dr. Edwin P. Hubble of the observatory said he had discovered the new star in the constellation Virago of the northern hemisphere, but refused to give details of his find.

A complete report has been made to the Carnegie Institute at Washington, D. C., and details will be released from there, he said.

The super-nova is a star which attains a high degree of brightness in a sudden flareup and then in a comparatively short time disappears.

Snow plows were called out again today by the state highway department to break through one of the heaviest snows of the year.

And just to think, a year ago today, the mercury almost reached 80 degrees, as warm as the average summer day.

Wreckers from garages had a busy day. Frantic calls were received from all parts of the city and county for aid in extricating cars that were stuck in the snow or mud.

Reports have been received this morning of difficulties encountered along the highways owing to the heavy snowfall during the night. Along the New Bedford road one resident near Parkstown Corners, states he could see cars in the ditch all along the way. Apparently they skidded to the side of the road, sometime during the night, as they are well covered with snow. From 8 to 10 o'clock this morning, the wreckers had been seen three times, a ways beyond the Parkstown section hauling cars out.

Bus terminal attaches reported today that the bus from Cleveland was stuck in the snow along the Youngstown road which delayed it more than an hour. However, the bus did not leave the roadway.

Reports from the state highway patrol this morning said they had not received reports of any accidents on the highway. Other reports said that cars and trucks were stalled along route 422.

Streets Director B. F. Butler stated today that if there is any resurfacing of North Jefferson street it must be done by the state as the state took over the maintenance of that street sometime ago.

State highway department has been notified by City Engineer G. R. Throop that it is time they do something to fix State street and Croton avenue. Bricks are "creeping" for want of tar, according to Throop.

Lights flickered today. According to Pennsylvania Power company the trouble was at the Boardman, O., station and was reflected to some degree in this city. No outages of service were reported.

Police officers had quite a day of it—especially those who are yet on traffic duty. Also the NYA directors of traffic. The youths were getting their first real taste of police traffic duty on a bad day.

Officer Thomas gave similar testimony regarding the condition in which Zuk was found. He then went back into the house where he found Mrs. Zuk on the floor of the pantry and in a semi-conscious condition. He tried to stop the flow of blood with a towell and then called an ambulance. He said that he had found a razor on the sink board of the pantry. They also found a paring knife, a hatchet handle and the head of a hatchet. They were exhibited to the jury. Mrs. Zuk was cut and bruised about the head.

Officer Tyrrell gave similar testimony. The case is still on trial.

Relief Probe Urged By Holt

West Virginia Senator Would Probe All Federal Relief Agencies

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17. — A sweeping investigation of all Federal Relief Agencies "to remove them from politics" was proposed today by Senator Holt (D) of West Virginia.

Holt, who has accused the relief administration in his state with playing politics with relief money, will introduce a resolution tomorrow calling for a "bi-partisan committee" to carry out the investigation.

He pointed out that his resolution will not conflict with one recently introduced by Senator Davis (R) of Pennsylvania, calling for a special senate committee to investigate the WPA.

"My investigation," said Holt, "will not only take in the WPA but will seek to find out what happened under the old WPA and the FERA, with a view to devising legislation to protect relief money from politics."

President Calls Congressional Leaders For Conference Late Today

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—President Roosevelt called a conference of congressional leaders for late this afternoon to iron out the relief situation, concerning which Mr. Roosevelt will advise congress before departing Thursday for Florida.

The president asked to the conference Vice President Garner, Speaker Byrns, Senators Robinson, Glass and Byrnes; Rep. Bankhead, house leader, and Chairman Buchanan of the House Appropriations Committee.

There has been wide speculation as to the size of the relief fund the president will ask. His congressional advisers have favored holding it to $1,000,000,000.

Start Hearings On A. T. And T. System

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON March 17.—The federal communications commission today opened hearings on the activities of the A. T. and T., and picked the Bell Telephone system as the first corporation to be heard.

Samuel Becker, commission counsel, said the Bell system is conducting its business through more than 200 corporate forms, that it enjoys a "national monopoly" in the field of telephone communication, and is a major factor in many industries.

ful service station proprietor was found mortally injured at his place of business near Grove City on March 16, a year ago, his head battered by his own pole axe.

First Witness

The first witness called by the commonwealth was Clarence Thompson, who lived opposite Sidley's gas station, and who was at the side of the dying man before he was removed to the Grove City hospital. Thompson stated that the lining of Sidley's left hip pocket had been pulled out and that Sidley's hand was lifted toward that pocket as he laid in his dying condition.

Edward Thomas, who was assistant county detective at the time, was then called to the stand. He told of being at the office of Burgess W. W. Van Eman, Grove City, when officers opened the pocketbook of the defendant, Palmer, and found 75 dollars.

The dead man's trousers were admitted to court as evidence, with the pocket linings pulled out, purportedly as found.

Intense interest in the trial is being shown by all Mercer county. Among the spectators this morning was the defendant's wife and little daughter, Ruth, who is four years old today.

After introduction of the trousers as evidence court was adjourned until 1:30 p. m.

Would See Gov. Hoffman

"I would be very glad to receive Governor Hoffman at my home in the Bronx, which should be a very lovely place now that spring is here. I would give him a good dinner and talk with him as long as he pleases, but I don't see any reason why I should go to New Jersey."

All the way up the bay, Doctor Condon remained locked in his suite with members of his family who had made the early morning trip by cutter to board the liner and greet the returning intermediary of the Lindbergh ransom negotiations.

In addition, the doctor had acquired a press agent who, far from the ordinary voluble P. A. type, startled the throng of reporters and photographers with a statement in which he (the press agent) said that Jafsie had said that he had nothing to say.

Jafsie made it even plainer on his arrival. He seemed, in fact, to enjoy immensely his new role of stern silence, in marked contrast to his usual loquaciousness.

"I have," commented Jafsie, bobbing his new derby emphatically, "no comment to make."

The Bronx pedagogue's vacation in the tropics undoubtedly improved his health. His eyes were clear and twinkling, his face ruddy and his movements brisk.

Nicholas Uram, Sr.

Nicholas Uram, Sr., aged 53 years, died at the family residence, 125 Atlantic avenue, at 1:30 p. m. Monday, after an illness of some time.

He was born in Czecho-Slovakia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Uram, and came to the United States about 30 years ago. Practically all of that time he passed in New Castle and had been employed by the steel mill and by the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing Co. He was a member of St. Nicholas Greek Catholic church.

In addition to his wife, Mrs. Mary Uram, he is survived by two sons, Nicholas, Jr., and Johnny, of New Castle; three daughters, Mrs. Paul Stenko, of Lyndora, Pa., Ann and Helen, at home; three brothers, Peter, of Binghamton, N. Y., Paul and Andrew in Czecho-Slovakia, and three sisters, Mary, Anna and Christine in Czecho-Slovakia.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home at 9 a. m. Thursday, with later services in St. Nicholas church, Rev. Joseph Milly, in charge. Interment will be made in St. Nicholas cemetery.

Mrs. Moore Funeral

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret G. Moore were conducted from the home of her son, John K. Moore, Maryland avenue, Monday afternoon, with Rev. Chester T. R. Yeates, pastor of the Third United Presbyterian church, in charge.

Pallbearers were the Messrs. L. B. Moore, Stimple, Steinbrink, Hughes, Foreman and Dinsmore. Interment was made in Union cemetery, Butler county.

Tony Bloise Funeral Time

Funeral services for Tony Bloise, formerly planned for this morning, were postponed to Wednesday because of the condition of the roads.

The body of Mr. Bloise will be removed from the home on the Pulaski road late this afternoon to the King Humbert hall, Division street, where friends may call after 7:30 o'clock. The requiem mass will be celebrated at St. Vitus church at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday, and interment will be made in St. Vitus cemetery.

Mrs. Patrick Conway

Mrs. Nora Riordan Conway, wife of Patrick Conway, of 507 County Line street, died in the New Castle hospital Monday night at 11:15 o'clock after a brief illness.

In addition to her husband she leaves one brother, Cornelius Riordan and a niece, Margaret T. Kelsea, of New Castle.

She was a member o. St. Mary's church, the L. C. B. A. and the Hospital Emergency club, and had a large host of friends.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

which was reported to ask for France's attitude toward the "ultimate" consideration.

Heretofore Germany has demanded the peace discussions be linked with the Rhineland talks. France has refused letting Germany take part in any Rhineland talks on such a basis.

Hitler Accepts

Berlin, Mar. 17.—Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler today accepted the League of Nations council's invitation to its London meeting—but made it clear that he would reverse his decision if Germany ran the danger of "walking into a diplomatic trap."

Germany's actual participation in London depends therefore, on assurances from Britain, as mediator for the Locarno Powers, that Hitler's new peace program for Europe will be considered "in due course," as demanded by the Reich.

Britain's reply is now being awaited before Hitler forwards his qualified acceptance to the league in London.

Pleased With Invitation

Chancellor Hitler will answer only when a full reply to his Sunday memorandum to London is laid before him, according to information late this afternoon in quarters close to the chancellory.

Hitler was pleased with the council's second invitation, it was said, but was understood to consider the invitation in itself insufficient to draw a German delegation to London. The second bid granted the Reich equality but avoided satisfying the Reich on the question of whether the Hitler peace proposals would be discussed.

It was contended Germany is ready to state her case before the League, but that she insists this cannot be done unless Britain in behlf of the Locarno Powers assures Germany the Locarno Powers are ready to discuss the Hitler peace plan, which is aimed at substituting for "previously broken-down treaties."

London, Mar. 17.—The pendulum of politics swung slightly toward peace today as Berlin indicated she would not flatly reject the League of Nations council's invitation and Chancellor Hitler manoeuvered to get back into the family of nations without being penalized.

Germany is now evidently resigned to accept the council condemnation charging "infringement of the Versailles treaty" as inevitable.

But in view of the impending plebiscite Hitler does not want to lose prestige at home by making a gesture upon which France, also faced with elections, still insists.

British mediation now promises to find a way out of the deadlock.

The possibility now appears that Germany may join the conference and talk with Britain even if France continues to refuse to negotiate as long as German troops remain in the Rhineland.

Whether the French refusal can be overcome speedily seems doubtful, as all reported French plans appear to be inacceptable to Germany. The Germans say they cannot agree to accept the Hague verdict on the question of whether the Franco-Soviet pact is compatible with the Locarno treaty, because they say the Hague is lined up to be against Germany and that anyway Germany never will evacuate her own territory in the Rhineland no matter what court orders it.

The bagpipe is said to have been introduced into Scotland by the Norsemen. It is of very ancient origin, as representations of it are to be found on Grecian and Roman sculptures, and it has long been well known among various eastern nations.

The Statue of Liberty on Bedloe's island, in New York, was unveiled on Oct. 28, 1886.

SURPRISE SHOWER HONORS BRIDE-ELECT

Monday evening, Miss Revine Simon invited a group of girls to the North Mill street home of Miss Ada Gilles, bride-elect, unbeknownst to the latter, to honor her at a miscellaneous shower. The occasion resulted in a complete surprise when Miss Gilles returned home from a dinner engagement to find a group of her associates assembled in the parlor, sitting quietly in darkness until she snapped the lights on.

Much excitement ensued, and a program of games and contests held attention. Mrs. Sara Douglass and Mafalda Morganti captured the prizes. Afterwards, the guest of honor was presented with a number of attractively wrapped packages, and when opened, revealed many beautiful gifts to use in her future home. Miss Gilles' engagement to Perry Frank of this city was recently announced, and their wedding will be an early event.

The hostess served a delicious lunch, with nuptial appointments prevailing in the table arrangement. A tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom, and tiny umbrella place favors in tones of pink and green, completed the setting.

DONOR DANCE TONIGHT AT THE FIELD CLUB

Tonight New Castle chapter Hadassah will sponsor its annual donor dance, cabaret style, at the New Castle Field club, Wilmington road. Hours are from 10 to 1 o'clock.

With the aid of a local orchestra the chapter anticipates a capacity crowd. Since reservations for table parties have been coming in rapidly, the committee which has worked tirelessly for the past several weeks, will be on hand to greet the guests.

Souvenir program which have been issued in connection with this social event will be distributed during the evening. For those who do not care to dance, there will be cards in the card room of the clubhouse.

In every respect the chapter has striven to make of this affair—the 24th birthday of the national organization—a gala occasion.

Amity Club

YUCATAN CLUB AT RAPPOLD RESIDENCE

As guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Rappold, of Hazelcroft avenue, Monday evening, the Yucatan club spent a delightful pleasure period playing cards. Five tables competed for the attractive awards.

In serving a tasty luncheon the hostess was assisted by her sister, Miss Beulah Norris. Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Love will have the next meeting in a fortnight at their home on North Jefferson street.

SPHINX PLANS FOR DANCE SATURDAY

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Mar. 17.—Sphinx, honorary men's fraternity of Westminster college, will hold its Sphinx St. Patrick's day dance on Saturday evening, March 21, in the gymnasium.

The dance will be semi-formal, and the decorations will be carried out in green and white, according to Robert Arrowsmith, Erie, Sphinx president.

Chaperones will oe Dr. and Mrs. Harold L. Black, Dr. and Mrs. Ben Ruwema, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mansell, Prof. and Mrs. John D. Lawther, and Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Biggs.

Invited guests are president and Mrs. Robert F. Galbreath, Dean and Mrs. Alex C. Burr, and Dean Mary E. Turner.

FIELD CLUB EVENING BRIDGE ON THURSDAY

Thursday of this week the usual evening bridge party will be held for men and women members of the New Castle Field club featured as one of their March series. The occasion has been planned for their enjoyment and activities will be in progress at 8:15 o'clock. The awarding of prizes to those winning distinction and the serving of lunch, will conclude the evening.

Husbands To Be Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Muder, Jr., will be hosts on Saturday evening, to G. T. E. members and their husbands, at their home on Lathrop street. The club will have the regular meeting Thursday evening of this week in the home of Mrs. George Price, East Washington street.

DINNER CELEBRATES 80TH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Rachel Bowden of West State street entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Clara Critchlow Weatherbee, who was 80 years of age.

Table decorations were carried out in seasonable colors of green and white, with miniature flower baskets marking name places. Also a glass basket of sugar flowers making the centerpiece. Mrs. Bowden was assisted in entertaining by her daughters, Mrs. John Bowden and Mrs. C. Ed. Donley, and niece, Miss Pearl Stevenson.

The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Gettings and son Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Critchlow and son Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Critchlow and son Richard, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Zell Stevenson and daughter Pearl, of Struthers, O.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dalby and daughter Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. George Critchlow of Youngstown, O.; Mr. and Mrs. John Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. C. Edward Donley of New Castle; grandchildren of Mrs. Weatherbee, Jack and Delores Donley, great-grandchildren of the honored guest.

CIRCLE '91 MEMBERS AT I. FULKERSON HOME

Mrs. Ira Fulkerson of Edgewood avenue opened her home Monday afternoon to members of the Reading Circle of '91, for a most interesting session. Miss Anna Dodds presided as critic. Following the usual opening routine, the afternoon's program was presented.

Mrs. John Butler gave a paper on "Puppets and Marionettes" and Mrs. Thomas Lindsay followed with an article entitled "Modern Theatre Guilds". Mrs. L. G. Nail contributed another interesting subject, "Playwrights of Today". A short discussion on these splendid topics concluded the afternoon's features.

On March 30, members will be received in the home of Mrs. J. M. Blackwood, East Washington street, which is a change in the year book.

Nameless Bridge.

Miss Lucille Moore was a charming hostess to members of the Nameless Bridge club, whom she entertained last evening at a downtown tea room.

St. Patrick's Day tones were used in an attractive manner in the decorations, the meet-em-all system of play being used in contract bridge, which occupied the attention of the members. The high score award went to Mrs. Frank Clary.

Lunch was served later in the evening, St. Patrick's day suggestions being carried out in the menu and table appointments.

Mrs. Elmer Reiber of Moody avenue will be hostess to the club in two weeks.

I. M. S. Class

I. M. S. class met at the home of Isabelle Burke recently. In the absence of the president, Cleora Brown, Vice President Eleanor Book, had charge of the meeting.

The girls decided to buy toweling to make up for the orphans' home in Valencia, Pa. A sum of money was turned in from a class activity. Later, games were played and refreshments served. Jean Dunkerly will have the next meeting at her home on Adams street.

Woman's Club Hears Allegheny President

One of the finest talks of several seasons was heard Monday afternoon, when members of the Woman's club and their guests gathered in Highland U. P. church for the semi-monthly meeting. The speaker, introduced by Mrs. Alvah Shumaker, chairman of the program committee, was Dr. W. P. Tolley, president of Allegheny college, of Meadville, Pa.

Dr. Tolley, who is one of the younger college presidents, chose as his subject, "Some Standards for Parents". He stressed three points. First: Acquaint young people with the realities of life; make them stand on their own feet. Second: Give them adequate philosophy of life. Third: Give them a high cultural standard.

In discussing the first point, Dr. Tolley said, "Virtue may become a vice. The sternness of a former generation of parents has given way to an attitude of over-indulgence. We coddle and pamper our children. We send them to college with a 12 year old understanding of life. Let them make some decisions for themselves. To shield and indulge the young, gives them an exaggerated idea of their importance and a false idea of life. Life has to be lived in a resisting medium. People who have no problems are bored. The happiest people are those who have loads to bear, but who make progress despite their loads."

Regarding the second point, Dr. Tolley emphasized the fact that it is more important to know a man's philosophy than it is to know the size of his bank roll. "Hauptmann is the result of an anti-social attitude. If philosophy of Woodrow Wilson had been followed in the Versailles Peace Conference, instead of retaliation measures advocated by Lloyd George and Clemenceau, the world would not now be faced with the spectre of war. We need to develop in our children a higher sense of values. In sports, train the young people to play the game for the game's sake, and not alone for victory. An occasional defeat on the athletic field is better training in good sportsmanship than continuous victory.

The idea for which one should strive is—at the end of life, one can feel that the world is a better place because one has lived in it."

"Culture", said Dr. Tolley, is all of loveliness of life captured at its best. The young person who comes from a home where there is appreciation of the finer things, has a running start in life. Our national standard of culture is appallingly low. It is here that women's clubs can perform an invaluable service. A militant minority which can see its purpose clearly, is more than a match for a multitude of bewildered citizens."

Previous to Dr. Tolley's address, Division of the Blind group, Mrs. E. W. Guy chairman—a part of the Educational department of which Mrs. Gayle Blim is head—presented several speakers at 1:30. These included Geraldine Fry, chairman Social Service committee of the B. P. W. (Mrs. E. W. Guy co-chairman); Earl Ramsey, of the Lions club; and Dr. Mary Baker, school physician, all of whom told of their work for and with the blind in Lawrence county.

For the past six years, the B. P. W., through its social service committee, has done a great preventative work among elementary school children in the county. Miss Fry spoke of how cases are investigated, after having been referred to them by the teachers. In the six year period, several hundred have been directly benefitted, 34 in 1934 alone having received care. As it has been impossible to take care of all cases referred to them, efforts are made to single out first, the mentally alert, with the idea that this group will of course, make the better citizens.

She recalled many interesting cases in this preventative work and outlined the ways and means employed by B. P. W. to raise funds for this decidedly praiseworthy phase of their educational projects.

Where the B. P. W. work pauses, the Lions club carries on, as Earl Ramsey outlined in his talk following. The Lions do a definite sight-saving work, one phase of which is corrective, while another concerns direct aid, with the placement of blind persons in institutions for them, where the cost of upkeep is assumed by both county and state, the former paying one-third, the latter, two-thirds. At this time, there are six blind persons from Lawrence county in these institutions, placed there through efforts of the Lions club.

Mr. Ramsey also told of the sundry and numerous ways used to enable the local group to do blind work, also recounting the interest and co-operation taken by these people on their own behalf. He mentioned particularly, the annual social activity held for all the blind in Lawrence county, for which a large part of the talent is furnished by the blind themselves.

Summarizing the talks given by both Miss Fry and Mr. Ramsey, Dr. Baker, as the third speaker, told of a survey which has just been completed in the elementary schools, by herself and a corps of nurses. They found that out of the school enrollment in elementary grades (about 5,000), there are 792 children who definitely need glasses. 212 children have less than normal vision(either one or both eyes defective), but of the first named figure, 106 are possible sight-savings cases. Only a small percentage of the 792 are able to pay for glasses, showing the need for financial aid.

Dr. Baker spoke of sight-saving classes she has recently visited and outlined the great work these are doing. They function as a part of the public educational system, the children being taught the Braile method when young, so they will not become dependent citizens when they reach adult life.

These classes cost in the neighborhood of $1,000 to establish, a negligible cost, when considered as a preventative measure to reduce the economic problem of probable dependents later, upon the city and county.

For the next regular meeting of the Woman's club, March 30, the speaker will be Commodore Herbert Hartley, former commander of the S. S. Leviathan, who will relate his experiences as captain on the great ocean liner.

BETTY WEINSCHENK HONORED AT PARTY

Members of New Castle Hospital Training School for Nurses, eight in number, assembled Monday evening in the home of Betty Weinschenk on Edgewood avenue, to celebrate her birthday.

Monopoly was the main diversion with the favors going to Helen Ward, Elizabeth Fleeger and Josephine Boran. The honoree was showered with lovely presents during the evening which was concluded by the serving of a dainty refection by the hostess' mother, Mrs. S. A. Weinschenk, and Katherine Weinschenk.

Honors Son

Mrs. R. W. Brehm entertained at her home on Englewood avenue Saturday, a number of young guests, honoring her son Gary, the occasion being his seventh birthday anniversary. Among the special guests, was Mrs. S. J. Mauro, of London, England, house guest at the Brehm home, who assisted the hostess in serving a tempting lunch, at a suitable hour.

The house was beautifully decorated with bouquets of spring flowers, and numerous shamrocks, the same appointments prevailing in the menu. During the leisure time, the group entered into a program of various games and contests that proved most interesting. Prizes fell to Edna Nunn, Allan Ingals, Dick Whittaker and Betty Jones.

Gary was presented with a collection of handsome gifts, as mementoes of the day.

Tigers Auxiliary Members

Members of the Tigers Auxiliary held their regular meeting Monday evening in their club rooms on South Mill street. A good attendance marked the event and following an informal social time, preceded by a short business discussion, lunch was served.

It was decided to postpone all activities until April 20. On this date Mrs. A. C. Riccardi and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. P. Riccardi, will be in charge.

ACME CLUB FETED IN MT. JACKSON HOME

A delightful meeting of the Acme club was held on the unlucky Friday of March 13, at the beautiful home of Mrs. Dale Andrews, in Mt. Jackson.

At noon, a delicious fish fry dinner was served to guests numbering 18 at a prettily appointed table with a color scheme of green and white, bearing out St. Patrick's colors.

After partaking of the dinner, the guests assembled in the lovely living room where the afternoon was spent informally with fancy work and social chat. The principal feature was a shower for Mrs. J. W. Fullerton which was a complete surprise to her. At a late hour, the guests adjourned to meet with Mrs. Flossie Andrews, Mt. Jackson, April 10.

G. H. M. Class

G. H. M. class of Central Presbyterian church will have the monthly meeting at the church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Friendship Club

Friendship club is having a meeting Wednesday evening with Mrs. John Armand, Reynolds street.

M. C. ANNUAL BANQUET THIRD U. P. CHURCH

M. C. Missionary circle of the Third U. P. church will hold the annual banquet in the form of a tureen dinner on Thursday evening, March 19, at the church. The affair had previously been planned for tonight.

Following the dinner, to which participants are expected to bring silver service as well as their tureens of food, a business session will feature an election of new officers.

CRIME BEGINS AT HOME

IN AN address in New York the other night dealing with "The Influence of Crime on the American Home," J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, brought out a point too often ignored by the average person in considering crime and its consequences.

It is simply this: Crime begins at home.

He supported that statement with some shocking statistics of crimes committed by mere children.

"Twenty per cent of our crime," he said, "is committed by persons not yet old enough to vote, by those not even out of their teens, by those often not even past high school age and who should still be under the active management and responsibility of the home."

Boys and girls steal thousands of automobiles, commit tens of thousands of robberies and hold-ups, commit about a thousand murders every year.

That Mr. Hoover finds in this condition an undeniable indictment of the parent of today is not unreasonable. The lazy, the indifferent, the foolishly indulgent parent can not escape moral responsibility when he finds his undisciplined child gone astray.

Mr. Hoover, like every other zealous law enforcement officer, knows that crime prevention is even more important than crime repression. Parental discipline and understanding and proper home training are primary crime prevention measures.

THE CONCEIT REMOVER

It is now announced that the Union Pacific is planning a $250,000 recreation lodge on the north rim of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado. It is important that such sites be made available so that people can see more of the wonders of nature in their own country.

As human beings, we are apt to become more or less conceited. We think we are pretty smart. We construct big buildings, bridges, dams and monster ships, and they are great accomplishments.

But it is a good thing to get a look at some handiwork of nature to realize how insignificant we are when it comes to really making a dent on the earth's surface.

Such an object lesson prevents us from becoming too self satisfied and tends to keep our minds on the fact that there are greater forces at work than political parties, industrial organizations, kings, queens, armies and navies.

You could drop the Empire State building, the biggest battleship or the new San Francisco Bay bridge into the Grand Canyon, and you would have to take a pair of binoculars to find them. As you stand on the rim of the Canyon at one of its principal scenic points, it is 13 miles across and a mile deep. The highest-powered rifle wouldn't even shoot far enough to drop a bullet in the river.

Anyone who has not seen the Grand Canyon of the Colorado should plan to some day take a trip there.

WHAT'S IT WORTH?

In view of present complications, which draw attention to the activities of the League of Nations regardless of the place in which it meets, it is interesting to consider the appreciation of the organization by its members as expressed in terms of their payment of league assessments.

According to information recently made public in the British house of commons, 21 governments have failed to keep up their payments to finance the work of the league. Since the total membership at present is 58, more than one-third of the members are in arrears, a situation that would throw the finance committee of any club into a state of desperation.

It would seem that now, more than at any other time, nations would be moved to value their league memberships and be glad to pay for the services which they expect to receive. At least it would appear that way from the outside.

However, it should be noted that this high rate of delinquency does not necessarily mean that the league is receiving less than two-thirds of its budgeted income. The dues are calculated on a sliding scale that varies with the wealth of the individual member, and Great Britain, for example, is charged a hundred times as much as the Dominican Republic.

Yet, the situation is unique and the finances of the league offer an interesting problem. Here is a society that, in effect, has no way of collecting dues from delinquent members. There is no court in which it can sue them, at least without their consent, and even if a judgment could be secured the league would have no means of enforcing it.

As a matter of fact, the league is not even in a position to fall back upon a common club practice and suspend or expel recalcitrant members, since its welfare depends so largely upon its inclusiveness, rather than any attempt at exclusiveness.

In the last resort, the league apparently must rely upon national consciences which, as this last financial report seems to indicate, are none too active. Out of the fullness of its experience with war debts, America extends its hand in sympathy to the league.

"Women taking up hiking." They used to call it gadding.

It is with genuine delight that our mind turns to the ordeal of putting up the screens, sweltering at ninety in the shade and picking Japanese beetles from our favorite rose bushes.

Hospitals of the country reported the birth of more twins and triplets in 1935 than ever before. Maybe this is one phase of the abundant life.

We will pause for just a moment to pay a tribute of respect to the perspicacity of the gentleman in the weather bureau who said last October that this would be a severe winter.

Lloyds Thinks No War.
The First Blow Is Best.
Out Of The League.
Why?
The Head Man's Load.
By ARTHUR BRISBANE

LLOYDS, the great English insurance concern, at first refused to insure against war at any price. Now Lloyds will insure, otherwise to "bet" nine and a half to one against war within six months. Wall street wanted that news and of course cheered up.

CHANCELLOR HITLER, said in Munich, on Saturday:

"I will take the full responsibility for what I have recently done."

I doubt whether anyone else would have the courage to take the full responsibility in his name alone.

Not many, probably, but it has been done. Cromwell took full responsibility for England, Napoleon for France, George Washington took and carried responsibility for this country. The heaviest load that a public man must carry is responsibility.

AN INTELLIGENT young man who fought well in the big war speaks of "the 2-to-1" advantage which modern methods give the defense over the attack. To let the other man or nation come at you, if you are prepared has been wise in the past.

It might be different in future wars, if the attacker with a couple of thousand air planes, dropping explosive bombs and poison gas, should surprise the enemy.

"Defense" would have no 2-to-1 advantage over that sort of attack. The advantage and victory will be with the country that strikes the first blow, if it hits hard enough to demoralize the defense.

THE SAFETY of this country as with Russia, lies in its great size If you destroyed New York, Washington, Boston, that would be bad, but, you would not have conquered the United States, only one small slice.

If you destroyed Paris, Bordeaux, and Marseilles, France, would be gone; if you destroyed London, Liverpool, Manchester, England would find it hard to recover.

The first blow hard enough is the thing in modern war.

YOU ARE glad the United States is not a member of the League of Nations, with Geneva telling what this country must do about Europe's situation?

The fact that we are not in the League is due primarily to two men Senator Hiram Johnson, of California, who fought the thing out in the Senate and William Randolph Hearts whose newspapers enlightened and created public opinion from one end of this country to the other.

NEW YORK reports a giant meteor, flashing brilliantly across the night sky lighting six states, landing, apparently with great force. Former credulity would have said:

"The fireball was sent to warn warlike nations in Europe, and tell us to keep out."

Modern incredulity thinks the meteor was "just natural," and tries vainly to find the place where it landed.

Scientists say the big meteor probably exploded and was melted into dust long before it hit the earth.

IN SPAIN burning of churches and other religious buildings continues, scores of Spaniards, including the son of the late dictator Primo de Rivera, are locked up for trying to protect churches from destruction.

Two more churches were burned in Madrid, on Saturday, according to the Associated Press, and the "venerated crucifix of the Christ of Faith, long an object of adoration, was destroyed."

Anti-religious hatred is said to be less intense in Mexico and in Russia than it was.

GOVERNMENT thought it wanted to dig a canal across Florida, avoiding loss of time and danger in the long windy trip around Key West.

Northern Florida, where the canal was to be located, wants it.

Southern Florida, which would be glad to have the canal, if it started, say at Miami, fights the canal, discovers that salt water from the canal will ruin Florida's fresh water supply. You wonder why the ocean and the gulf surrounding Florida have not done that, if a little canal could do it.

Meanwhile the government must pay for about 7,000,000 cubic yards of earth already removed and the excavating continues 75,000 cubic yards a day. If the canal is dropped after being approved, taxpayers will pay that bill but "the eel is used to being skinned."

PEARL S BUCK, author of "The Good Earth" in private life, Mrs. Richard Day Walsh, and her husband have adopted two boys five weeks old.

That is better than adopting a furry, Pekinese dog or a shivering long-haired inbred Russian wolf hound. But if you kept a store with pet dogs at double the price of babies, you would sell more dogs.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 6:08. Sun rises tomorrow 6:08.

There's always something to be thankful for. We can raise all the spuds we want to next summer without having some snooping government official sticking his nose in our garden to see if our vines bear a revenue stamp. Now all we'll have to contend with will be the potato bugs.

We've seen a few sissy men with permanent waves, but we never met one with plucked eyebrows, which goes to show that there's still a lot of common sense left in the sterner sex.

There are a lot of people who complain about the soot from their neighbor's chimney, while their own is belching great clouds of it right down on newly scrubbed porches. What's that story about removing the beam from your own eye before you dig the mote from your brother's?

Many a girl has horse sense enough to know when to nay.

He (after being turned down): I'm not worrying, there's a lot more fish in the sea.

She: Yeah, and if nobody's got a better line than you have, they'll all stay there.

The reason some women look sideways at a man is because they know they have a perfect profile.

We felt sure it was coming and here it is. A North Beaver township farmer announces that the past winter has killed the peaches, also the cherries and the plums. Well, we've still a few peaches left here in New Castle, and we can rely on the politicians to look after the plums.

Flu is much like a bad cold except that you are through with a bad cold when you get well.

At last we know why the chicken crossed the street. It was carrying letters for stamp collectors.

We should have kept out of the Olympics to humiliate Germany. We can't humiliate the other contestants.

The flatterer usually misses fire. He tells you that you are equal to some guy that you happen to despise.

A Harvard professor announces that there is no such a thing as a perfect automobile driver. He also remarks that women are not as good drivers as men. They lack the physical skill and mental agility of men. Women are harder to teach to drive than men, so he says, and girls under twenty learn faster than girls over twenty-five. There are no doubt girls and women who will disagree with the learned professor. Anyway, it makes something to talk about.

What has become of the old-fashioned mother who hoped her son might grow up to be a congressman?

SPEAKING OUT OF TURN

"I told my wife straight up and down that she couldn't henpeck me any more."

"Bravo! Now you can hold your head up."

"Yes, but it's still pretty sore and bruised."

Men's double-breasted suits are to have but four instead of six buttons, a style item states. The left-over two, we presume, are for use when the church collection plate reaches your pew.

Canton, O., has passed an ordinance prohibiting the sale of gasoline or oil to intoxicated motorists. Looks like putting the cart before the horse. Why not have an ordinance prohibiting sale of the stuff responsible for the motorist's condition?

Growing profits from state liquor stores are reported from Harrisburg. That's one kind of profits we don't like to see. Most of the money spent for liquor could be used to better advantage in the homes. Simply because the profits go to a worthy charity is no excuse for the damnable business.

We didn't believe a permanent wave really permanent till we met this recent cold one.

Anyway, it's nice to have a Republican candidate whom Mr. Borah can approve.

Zero in foolish vanity is to read a dull book and feel superior to one who hasn't.

If it hadn't been for the war in Ethiopia a lot of folks would never have known that there is such a place as Addis Ababa. And probably they would have lived just as long anyhow. What's the use of a fellow filling up his brain cellar with names of places he never expects to see?

President Roosevelt was honor guest at a "little cabinet" dinner recently. It was a "stag" affair, and nobody but the invited guests were allowed to 'horn in."

A hick town is tolerant. It talks a lot about the sinner's sin, but it never does anything about it.

The chief cause of war is the fact that everybody's pet dog looks vicious to a stranger.

Another way to spend a lively evening is to ask some one in the party the right way to pronounce Caribbean.

New Castle folks can feel a lot more comfortable when we have heavy rains for a few days, or when the heavy snows begin to melt. With the Pymatuning Dam now in working order a lot of danger has been removed.

We imagine a lot of the younger folks, those addicted to the habit of petting, will not like the idea of stringing lights along the old Neshannock Narrows.

Americanism: Refusing to drink from the same cup for fear of germs; kissing the same girl.

The following story, which is said to be a true one, is told about a drunken driver whose car had left one of the roads just outside the city, and crashed into the front porch of a home:

He was placed under arrest.

"What's the idea," the state highway patrolman asked, "of driving your car into a house."

"Not my fault," replied the inebriate, "the guy didn't have his porch light on, did he?"

"Have you heard of the cow flying over Florida?" a friend asked us the other day.

"No," I answered puzzled.

"Moo-oo-n over Miami," he replied.

A white collar isn't the only advantage in a profession. Only the professional man gets paid when he fails.

Even bad things serve a good purpose. If people never got sick, they would never resolve to reform.

A great president is one who happens to be on the job when Mr. Morgan lets us make some money.

The true politician spends a couple of months before election getting the people's votes. The rest of the time he spends in getting their goats.

Most automobile drivers must be amateurs, too. At least one sees the street car motormen giving them the gong plenty.

Judging by the opinion of many government critics, that group of administration advisers might well be called the Brain Distrust.

There seems to be nothing like a little war scare to force stock market prices down. Hitler has succeeded where President Roosevelt didn't even have a look-in.

Now that a scientist has crossed the onion with garlic, making a new vegetable, you can cross us out when it's served.

ONE DISTINCTION

"A telegram from George, dear."

"Well, did he pass the examination this time?"

"No, but he is almost at the top of the list of those who failed."

No wonder people covet publicity. Look how long it keeps a murderer out of the electric chair.

A reasonable return on capital is fair, whether the capital is cash or brains.

No wonder there was less heart disease in the old days. If a man of 80 died of a cold, doctors didn't call it heart trouble.

The idea seems to be that the present neutrality law will keep us neutral so long as both belligerents are broke.

Correct this sentence: "I was sick for a week," said she, "and my husband didn't seem at all resentful."

These economists who think competition a bad thing never tried to get service from a man who had no competition.

Poor kids! Science has found a substitute for spinach, but it turns out to be a vitamin D soap.

Good Taste

By FRANCINE MARKEL

By FRANCINE MARKEL

DEAR MISS MARKEL—I have recently married and moved to a distant city. Several of my husband's friends have called on me and left their cards. I notice that one of them, a woman, has written in ink on her card: "Third Tuesdays." What does this mean?

MRS. G. T.

Answer—This means that she is at home to callers on every third Tuesday of each month. Sometimes this announcement is engraved on the lower left-hand corner of visiting cards—and sometimes it is written in ink.

These "at home" cards may be mailed to friends and acquaintances or left at their homes that they may know the days on which they are sure to be received.

The best time to make formal calls is between 3 and 4:30 in the afternoon. Twenty minutes is the proper length of time for such a formal call. Less than ten minutes would be too short, more than 30 minutes too long, unless the hostess emphatically insists that you prolong your stay.

Public Beginning To Think.
Taxes Bring Situation Home.
Takes Money From Circulation.

Central Press
Cleveland Bureau

By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

CLEVELAND, O., Mar. 17.—Payment of the first instalment of this year's income taxes brought the cost of government directly home to a large percentage of the people.

This has caused people to look around to assess the gains.

Business is good again in this industrial region—but the belief remains that that there has been no "cure".

Perhaps this statement by one income taxpayer—in the medium-size class—will explain what is in many minds:

"I have no objection seeing my money taken for relief and for forward-moving projects. But I have a feeling it never will get there. Not because of graft. No—inefficiency.

"I hold nothing against the Roosevelt administration except its inefficiency. But waste, derived from inefficiency, can bring a nation to its knees, can ruin it.

"I admire the knowledge of college professors, I believe we need theorists. But, above all, especially in a crisis—and eleven million unemployed constitute a crisis — we need trained administrators. Let the college professors advise them, by all means, but put trained administrators into the key positions. Pay them $100,000 a year, to get them away from large corporations, put them on their honor to get us out of the hole, then permit them to use their hard-headed judgment without interference.

"Social reform will come sooner in that manner than this.

"If we go as we are going, we shall have an entire nation in bread lines."

Well, hardly that. But other people here agree there is a great deal of truth in that interview.

GET TOGETHER?

Perhaps—it is opined by another person—if Big Business would forget its bitterness and get together with the government on a series of compromise understandings—

Ah, but that seems fantastical. There are two opposing elements in the world. They fight to the death—in all ages.

Yet—this observer went on—business would save itself, government would save itself, workers would have more security if they would sit down at a table and agree on an economic and social policy that would tax monies into constructive channels.

But business would have to agree to modify many of its present policies, labor would have to agree to consolidations to avert duplication of effort. Yet—this observer remarked confidently — security of earnings and of job would result. And in a real division of earnings, purchasing power would go to new highs—and the crisis would be ended.

Then the battle for social reforms could proceed in a sound nation. "Even Communists would prefer to take over a sound government—but they're not likely to get it then."

It all sounds too good to be true, yet there is much truth in this comment, others agree.

PRESENT DANGER

The present danger, it is held by many here, lies in the fact that the tax burden takes from circulation money that would be spent in constructive efforts.

"It may well be said that we cannot leave the unfortunate to starve," asserted another resident here. "But we will starve all the sooner if we must restrict our development and our expenditures because of increasing taxation.

"If, on the other hand, it is desired to 'redistribute wealth' through taxation, then that method is a failure. A larger share in earnings to all who help to produce—which assuredly is not the government—is the only means that wealth can be distributed without utterly drying up the wealth producing well."

But would the average corporation, the average person, not prefer to be taxed to sharing income and property — or has the world changed?

The contest to settle that question has been never ending.

SOMEBODY WRONG

The federal government angers the people unnecessarily. It misleads them.

For example, last year revenue men here advised depositors in closed banks that they could deduct for all unpaid losses in those banks instead of a percentage.

Now—at the moment another income tax is on the people—a new set of revenue men is going from door to door to collect taxes for those deductions "that should not have been made."

It seems that the deductions were advised on the basis of a bill introduced by Senator Robert J. Bulkley of Ohio. But Senator Bulkley failed to advise anybody that he quietly abandoned his bill at tax paying time.

Thus the losers pay. And losers have votes.

THE LEISURE CLASS

J. P. Morgan says that if you have a maid you belong to the leisure class.—News item.
Says J. P. Morgan, wise in trade
And fortunes lucky men amass,
All people who engage a maid
Are plainly of the leisure class.
One servant does the trick, says he,
Which lifts all heads above the throng
And be she neat or slovenly,
In every blue book you belong.

Perhaps you thought the leisure
class
Was just a happy, favored few
Who rise and watch the mornings pass
With never any work to do.
But you were wrong! If such a life
Of luxury is your desire,
To do the dishes for your wife
One maid is all you need to hire.

What if you go to work each day
And stew and worry, fume and fret,
And wonder how you're going to pay
Your taxes and increasing debt,
Believe what Mr. Morgan tells.
If you have hired a serving lass
To make the beds and answer bells,
You're truly of the leisure class!

You no doubt think your lot is hard
Since seldom can you be at ease,
But if a servant in the yard
On Monday hangs your b. v. d.'s,
And dusts the chairs and sweeps the floor,
And shines the silver and the glass,
You are a workingman no more.
You've gone and joined the leisure
class!

Hardly a man now alive can forget the Sundays of his youth when he was led to church where he usually slept during the long sermon of only too often a prosy preacher.

A latter day example of one of these clergymen stormed into the editor's sanctum upon a recent Tuesday morning and addressed the editor:

"Sir! your compositors are grossly incompetent!"

"Indeed," returned the editor mildly. "What have they done?"

"Why," came the reply, "in your report on my sermon, the word 'reverend' occurs fourteen times and each time they have misprinted it 'neverend'."

WASHINGTON AT A GLANCE

May Use Hull As Spellbinder

Is Looked Upon As Ablest Thinker In Roosevelt's Cabinet At Present

HULL'S WORDS HAVE MEANING

Central Press
Washington Bureau
1900 S street

By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17—The administration evidently desires to use Secretary of State Cordell Hull as one of its star speakers in the coming national campaign.

It is experimenting with him as a spellbinder now.

Perhaps Cordell Hull is the ablest thinker in public life today—a statesman rather than a mere politician, but I doubt that he can spellbind. He knows what to say, but he says it with no oratorical verve. It is an education in government to read what he has written or to listen to him across his desk, as I have done when he was in congress. However, he hasn't the declamatory flair.

He is impressive to the eye; in fact, a very handsome man. But what good does that do him over the radio?

WORDS HAVE SUBSTANCE

When Hull makes a speech it is not a speech, it is the reading of an essay.

It is a corking good essay, but read in piping tones, with no emphasis, no fire.

His words have substance. What he lacks is elocution—utterly.

When he was in the house of representatives and then in the senate, his fellow lawmakers had the highest respect for his attainments, but they generally scattered when he arose to address them, subsequently perusing his remarks minutely in the Congressional Record. His ideas interested them, but it was too tiresome to hearken to him as a speaker.

IN PRE-RADIO DAYS

Hull apparently "sold" himself to his home state of Tennessee on his merits in pre-radio times. Even then his oratorical deficiencies must have handicapped him. Still, the Tennessee folk were his neighbors, who unquestionably recognized his worth from contact with him.

Similarly his acquaintanceship in congress was personal.

As secretary of state he hasn't had to make platform appearances. The fact that he cannot orate has not mattered.

But his ability has counted.

Alone among the cabinet members his prestige has increased throughout the Roosevelt administration. He has lived down Raymond Moley. He has kept clear of such squabbles as Secretary of the Interior Ickes has been involved in and of such scandals as have involved Secretary of Commerce Roper's department. He hasn't been mixed up in politics, like Postmaster General Farley. Far from having dwindled to mediocrity, like two or three other members of President Roosevelt's official family, he has made more than good in the face of a none too promising start on inauguration day, 1933.

He is a bit too international for some tastes, but he is a "big man" unmistakably.

BALANCED "BRAIN TRUSTERS"

It is no secret that Hull was chosen for the premier cabinet post as a mightily substantial piece of furniture.

He balanced the "brain trusters". He was and is a moderate liberal, without being a "leftist". He was and is politically "respectable", in the conservative sense of the word, without being a reactionary.

His record in office, from the present administration's viewpoint, could not have been improved on.

He is not too advanced to offend conservatism.

He is liberal enough to mollify radicalism.

And he is a high-class statesman, to satisfy everybody.

CAN HE "HYPNOTIZE"?

But can he spellbind?—under modern conditions?—to hypnotize the rank and file of voters?

A radio audience?

I can see them tuning out on him in short order.

Many speakers need "ghost writers" to prepare their speeches for them; they can furnish the elocution. Secretary Hull can do his own writing. What he needs is a ghostly pair of lungs to elocute for him.

Christine Butler Submits Report Of Neighborhood House

Americanization Board Hears Welfare Worker's Report

The January and February report for the Neighborhood House was submitted on Saturday evening by Miss Christine Butler at a meeting of the Americanization Board in the home of Mrs. Charles Greer, North Jefferson street, and is as follows:

Calls made, 94; book exchanges, 237; classes now in session include beginners sewing, meeting on Monday afternoons and women's English, meeting Monday and Friday evenings, Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons, Mrs. Cleo Tinstman, teacher; six nationalities are represented.

Other classes are: Loyal Temperance Legion and knitting class; leader, Mrs. Helen Wilkins, president of the Lawrence County W. C. T. U.; Christian Endeavor, leader, Miss Mabel Lewis; prayer group meetings on Tuesday evening; Home Nursing, meeting on Thursday afternoons, Mrs. Murray, of the state, in charge; embroidery circle, leader, Mrs. W. J. Marshall; and music class, teacher, Miss Violet Shuler.

Boys under 16 years old are sent to the Y. M. C. A. on Saturdays. The Sunday school has had an average attendance during the winter of between 75 and 100. An outline of the Neighborhood House work was presented to the Margaret Copeland Circle of the Third U. P. church. Thirty-four Bibles were given to boys and girls of the Sunday school who had earned them through good attendance. Thirty Gospels of John and 100 gospel tracts were distributed.

WPA Orchestra To Play At Mt. Jackson

Will Present A Concert For Students In High School Wednesday Morning

The WPA orchestra will play a one hour concert exclusively for the pupils of Mt. Jackson high school Wednesday, March 18, from eleven to twelve a. m.

The orchestra has already played several concerts at other schools throughout the city. The morning and afternoon concerts are exclusively for the pupils. The public is cordially invited to all evening concerts and there is no admission charge at any time.

The orchestra played two concerts for the pupils of the Ben Franklin Junior high school last Friday afternoon and a two hour concert in the evening for their parents and the general public. The school auditorium was filled to capacity and the orchestra delivered one of the finest concerts heard in New Castle for some time.

Ben Shulansky director of the orchestra this year has arranged the programs with so much variety that the orchestra is sure to please all. The orchestra plays classical music and has a fine dance combination directed by Harry Hammond. Gomer Griffith is the vocalist of this group and does a fine job of it, too. Tommy Kersey, who is master of ceremonies, steps out of his roll as M. C. and provides some of the most unusual comedy to be seen here for a long time.

Litter Of Pigs Is Puzzle To Farmer

(International News Service)

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., March 17.—A. C. Lockhart, a farmer of Bishop, Va., almost swooned Monday when he went to the barnyard and found a litter of twenty pigs.

Recovering his equilibrium, he proceeded to the nearest telephone and called the Bluefield Sunset News, thirty miles away, to ask if "the AAA will do anything to me."

A bewildered reporter assured him of his ignorance of the government's possible reaction whereupon Lockhart observed "Well, these are such fine little fellers I sure would hate to plow 'em under."

On Court House Hill

Bond of E. S. Shaffer in the sum of $600 as tax collector of Little Beaver township was approved by the court today.

County Commissioners' Clerk W. E. Eakin is setting the tax millage on the different properties throughout the county in accordance with the recent levy of 10 mills made by the county commissioners. Books for some of the districts have already been completed and are in the hands of the county treasurer, but it will be several weeks yet before all the computations have been made.

With the trial of the Dimetri murder case, which was taken up before Judge W. Walter Braham yesterday, Attorney Edwin K. Logan will have completed the trial of his 26th murder case. Attorney Logan has represented the defendant in practically all of the cases. Among them was the trial of John D. Seevers, who is now serving a life term in the Western penitentiary for the murder of his wife. Logan recently argued a motion to quash another indictment against Seevers for the slaying of his sister-in-law, Catherine Rodgers. A decision in this case has not yet been handed down.

Forty-six instruments of all kinds were recorded by Register and Recorder William R. Hanna last week. Of this number 24 were deeds and eight were mortgages. There was one Home Owners Loan corporation in Ellwood City for $2,659.22. No new loans are being made by the Home Owners Loan corporation, except those which through some technicality could not be closed earlier.

In the case of C. W. Knox against William E. E. Noggle, growing out of the sale of a property of defendant by the sheriff, a citation has been awarded on Noggle to show cause why he should not deliver up possession of the property. It is claimed that he has been notified of the sale, but has so far refused to vacate. The rule is returnable within 15 days.

Register and Recorder William R. Hanna is still busy making out state personal returns of property subject to the one-mill tax. March 15 was the date fixed on which all the returns were supposed to be in, but the time limit has been extended until the 31st, as there were many people who were unable to get blanks. Many returns are being made by persons who never returned any personal property before. They are also making returns to the county.

Under the will of the late Thomas Norman White of North Beaver township, which has been probated at the office of Register and Recorder William R. Hanna, decedent left $300 to Bethel United Presbyterian church. Florence Mackey is left $500 and the balance of the estate is to be divided between Thomas Norman White and Jonn W. White, nephews of decedent. Attorney Alvah Shumaker is named as executor.

State highway patrolmen have been instructed to keep a sharp lookout for truck drivers who violate the orders placed by Superintendent John Shaw on seven highways of the county. These orders prohibit the driving of trucks over these roads when the truck and load weighs over 10,000 pounds. The order will be in effect for 90 days.

Under the will of the late Thomas Grey of this city, all of decedent's property, real and personal, is left to his wife, Mary H. Grey. Mrs. Grey is also named as executrix.

By the will of the late Mrs. Margaret Hunt of Grant street, all her property is left to her son, Paul D. Hunt, who is named as executor.

Why Gulf is the Gas for March

SURE AND IT'S almost the middle of March—the month the thermometer makes an average jump of 5 to 13 degrees. The Moral? That your gas should fit the season! If it doesn't, you don't get maximum mileage. Switch to That Good Gulf—it's "Kept in Step with the Calendar"—so all of it goes to work, none of it goes to waste!

GULF

Morning, noon and night, the telephone's on the job. It takes the housewife to the stores . . . it settles details . . . it gets information . . . it brings news . . . it keeps friends in touch. Nothing does so much for so little! YOU can have a telephone in YOUR home for less than a dime a day.

MEMBERS OF A. A. CLUB HAVE ANNIVERSARY

Mrs. Frank Plush and Mrs. Kirk Tackitt proved charming hostesses to the A. A. club members on the evening of March 13 when the second anniversary was celebrated.

A delicious chicken dinner was served at 6:30 in honor of the event, with covers for 12 at a long table adorned with green and white colors and a bowl of spring flowers as the centerpiece.

Following dinner, the club members held the business session at which it was decided the next meeting would be in the form of a theatre party. Cards and games were in play with Mrs. William Eardley and Elizabeth Riley winning the prizes.

Special guests were Misses Virginia, Marian and Billy Tackitt and Miss Fern Riley. The next club meeting will be on March 27.

J. O. Y. CLASS ENJOYS BIRTHDAY DINNER

J. O. Y. class of the First Baptist church gathered in the home of Mrs. Becky Klingensmith, 935 Temple avenue, Monday evening at 6:30 when the members enjoyed the annual birthday dinner party.

St. Patrick's decorations and tall green tapers graced the table where a sumptuous repast was served by the hostess, assisted by Nevada Snyder and Ethel Patterson.

A short business meeting and social chat filled the remaining hours, concluding a most delightful event.

Miss Frisbee Honored

Miss Anna Ruth Frisbee was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening when members of the H. S. P. club and their escorts gathered at the Frisbee home on Prospect street, to help celebrate her birthday anniversary. Games and music provided the main diversions and at an appropriate time the honored one was showered with a collection of lovely gifts, as mementoes of the happy event.

A most delicious lunch was served by her mother, Mrs. Ed. Frisbee, as the concluding feature. Green and white appointments prevailed throughout.

JUNIOR READING CIRCLE ANNIVERSARY DINNER

Junior Reading circle will commemorate the first anniversary (having become federated one year ago, March 19, 1935), with a dinner-meeting downtown, at 6:30 Thursday.

Special guests for this occasion will be Mrs. Charles Greer, honorary president of the Lawrence County Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. Laura Parker, past president of the Senior Reading Circle, Mrs. E. D. Marvin, sponsor Junior Federation, Mrs. S. D. Pearson, state chairman of conservation Federated Women's clubs.

H. S. P. Club Meeting

Members of the H. S. P. club met with Nellie Simons at her home on the Pulaski road recently for an evening session. A "hat exchange" caused much hilarity, followed by bingo, the prize going to Anna Ruth Frisbee.

Plans were made for a "fortune hunt" to take place Thursday, March 19, beginning at 7:30 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. Other items regarding the party were discussed. Lunch followed, the hostess being assisted by her mother, Mrs. Audley Simons. The date of their next regular meeting is scheduled for March 27, with Laura Dickey, on Kathryn street.

Edith Woodrow Class

Edith Woodrow class of the First Baptist church met last night in the home of Mrs. Stanley Reese, Rose avenue, who, assisted by Mrs. F. L. Williamson, provided a very pleasant evening for the group.

In addition to the seventeen members present, there was a special guest, Mrs. Clarence Kradel.

Devotions were led by Miss Alma Broadhead. A dainty St. Patrick's lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by Mrs. Kradel and Jack Reese.

The April 27 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Luikhart, Meyer avenue.

Gayettes Club

Gayettes club met recently in the home of Mrs. Raymond Pittman, on South Ray street, when a delightful afternoon was spent playing games. The first prize was won by Mrs. Earl Ward, and the second by Mrs. Paul W. Martin.

Following a business session, lunch was served with appointments in St. Patrick's tones. Handkerchiefs were presented in the form of a shower for the guests of honor, Mrs. Raymond Pittman and Mrs. Earl Ward.

A lovely birthday cake was cut as an additional feature.

R. U. Club

A tureen dinner featured the regular meeting of the R. U. club, Monday night in the organization's club rooms, South Jefferson street.

Appropriate speeches were made by Mrs. M. Santia, Mrs. C. Lombardo and Mrs. H. Ross, during the course of the event, which proved most successful. Mrs. P. Turco, Mrs. Grace Sorto and Mrs. Rose Tedescko, were presented with handkerchiefs, in honor of their birthday anniversaries.

Mrs. M. Ross and her team will act as hostesses at the next meeting, March 30.

Plamor Club

"BOX PARTY" PROGRAM FOR QUEEN ESTHERS

A most elaborate box party was held in the assembly room of the Third United Presbyterian church, Monday evening, when members of the Queen Esther class entertained their friends and husbands. The room was beautifully decorated in green shamrocks, and lighting effects. Much credit is to be given the girls on the committee, including Mrs. Emerson Flansburg, Mrs. David Jones, Mrs. Morris Houk, Mrs. Williard McCown and Mrs. Garth Rapson.

At 8:30 o'clock, the group assembled, and their boxes, attractively wrapped, were placed on a table, that too, was appointed in the same color theme. Shortly after this, an amateur program was presented, with Major Bernard Hook, in charge of the broadcasting station. Those taking part follow: Earl Hammond, solo; Maryetta Daugherty, reading; Mrs. Emerson Flansburg, the "singing dog"; Ralph Sacripant as "Water Rinshall," Mrs. Gibson, Mrs. David Jones, Mrs. Lloyd Wimer, Mrs. Clarence Love and Mrs. C. Brickner, as the "Dionne Quins"; Dutch Quehl as Dr. DeDafoe; Mrs. David Brosn as the nurse, this entire ensemble gave an appropriate song.

The role of Kate Smith was portrayed by Mrs. Bernard Hook; little country girl skit who made an audition, was taken by Mrs. Morris Houk; David Jones, as a "hill billy" songster with Mrs. David Brown, accompanist; Williard McCowan, solo, with Maryetta Daugherty, accompanist; Mrs. Ralph Sacripant, solo; Mrs. Wilbur McKibben, Mrs. William McBride and Mrs. Allan McKissick, gave a skit as "Clara, Lou and Em." Major Hook then entertained with an original "vox-pop" interview, calling upon members of the audience, including Charles Gee, Cecil Potter, Maryetta Daugherty, Betty Gray, Mrs. Garth Rapson, Thomas Baskeyfield, Clarence Love and William McBride.

Following, members found their partners, and entered into the grand march of the evening. The serving of lunch from the boxes, concluded the event. Small tables centered with clusters of valley lilies and St. Patrick's tones, made an attractive setting.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Potter, Glenn Lemon, Louis Mooney, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gee, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. David Brown and William McGuire.

On April 6, members of the Queen Esther class will gather in the church for a banquet.

O. D. D. Club

Regular meeting for the O. D. D. club group was held in the home of Eleanor Markley, South Mill street, last evening. A treasure hunt featured, with Esther Wolfe winning the prize. A tap dance was given by Ruth Markley and a discussion of a play to be given in the near future filled in the remaining hours.

After the serving of refreshments they adjourned to meet Monday, Mar. 30, with Marian Ginsberg on Lyndal street. She also assisted the hostess with the menu.

Wednesday Quilting Club

Mrs. Mary Harvey, of Beckford street, will be hostess at an all day meeting of the Wednesday Quilting club tomorrow.

MRS. LAURA PARKER HOSTESS TO CIRCLE

"Poetry" was the theme of the meeting held Monday afternoon by members of The Reading Circle at the home of Mrs. Laura Parker, Laurel avenue. She entertained at their usual bi-weekly event, with a good number giving response to roll call with a "verse of modern poetry".

Following routine business Mrs. H. D. Harlan contributed an excellent paper on "Modern Poetry" that was later discussed in a novel manner, when she was questioned by Mrs. C. L. Sipe. The latter gave proper response to her many inquiries, thus revealing unusual facts concerning this subject.

April 16 Mrs. A. P. Furst will receive members at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. Bollard, corner of North Mercer street and Hazelcroft avenue.

LEGION AUXILIARY PARTY SUCCESS

American Legion Auxiliary members gathered in the Legion Home Monday evening for one of the most successful parties of the season. Cards and bingo followed the short business period, with Mrs. Diana Sweet as general chairman. She had as aides Mrs. Mary Reynolds and Mrs. David Tobin. The special bingo was conducted under Frank Marshall.

Prizes awarded at the close of the evening went to Mrs. Sara McLafferty and Mrs. Lillian Falls. Refreshments were served later, with Mrs. J. Norris chairman and her committee in charge. St. Patrick's appointments prevailed throughout.

Monday, April 6, the regular meeting, with initiation of a large class, will be held by auxiliary members in their usual place.

COUNCIL JEWISH WOMEN MEETING ON WEDNESDAY

New Castle section National Council of Jewish Women will have the regular meeting Wednesday evening, March 18, at 8 o'clock, in Temple Israel.

Complete Jury For Zuk Trial

Nine Men And Three Women To Hear Evidence In Murder Case

TAKEN TO SCENE MONDAY AFTERNOON

With the acceptance of B. W. Pitzer at 3:25 o'clock Monday afternoon the jury which will try Dmitri Zuk for the murder of his wife was completed and the case was ready for opening. The jury was polled, and before the formal opening the court ordered a bus to be secured and the jury taken to the scene of the alleged crime, the Zuk home at 503 Electric street.

In the examination of talesmen it was indicated that the defense would offer the defense of "temporary insanity". The commonwealth will probably attempt to break this down with the charge that the insanity if there was any, was self inflicted, caused by the excessive use of alcoholic beverages.

Zuk is alleged to have killed his wife on December 10 in their home and then attempted suicide by slashing his throat with a razor. The wife, Zina Zuk died, and the defendant recovered.

The jury is as follows:

F. O. Alexander, tinworker, Third ward.
Eliza Cadman, housekeeper, Hickory.
Merle Gibson, laborer, Fourth ward.
Alfred Glen Zahniser, clerk, Third ward.
Elliott S. Warnock, driver, First ward.
Nathaniel E. Musser, carpenter, Third ward.
Laura Weller, housekeeper, Perry.
Joseph Gibson, laborer, Fourth ward.
John Yoho, trucker, Shenango.
Charlotte Eagleson, housekeeper, New Wilmington.
Earl Dunn, farmer, North Beaver.
B. W. Pitzer, railroader, Fourth ward.

Seniors' Film Will Buy Stage Curtain

'Rose Of The Rancho' At Penn Benefits Class; Safety Film Also

Members of the senior A class of senior high school, commencing Wednesday, are sponsoring a three-day showing of the film, "Rose of the Rancho" at the Penn theater, it was announced today.

Proceeds of the afternoon and evening showings will be deposited in a school fund, out of which a new auditorium stage curtain will be purchased.

An added attraction to the film show will be the snappy tap dancing and instrumental musical numbers which a group of talented senior high students will give. Among the performers will be one of the most capable of the younger piano players of the city.

During the same performances the Junior Chamber of Commerce, through the courtesy of the Penn management, will offer a safe driving film, "Hit-and-Run Driver". The picture fits in well with the organization's newly inaugurated safety crusade.

James Barnes is general chairman of the "Rose of the Rancho" ticket committee, with the following as some of his aides: Mary Bowers, Bill Broad, Dorothy Chambers, Curtis Fritz, Marjorie Hildebrand, Bob Louden, Bob Mackie, Dick Tanney and Dorothy Ward.

Tickets for the high school show may also be purchased at the safety campaign headquarters of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, 231 East Washington street.

Quick Relief From Pile Irritation

Thirty years ago, a Buffalo druggist created a formula for relief from the itching and smarting caused by piles. It brought such amazing quick relief that its fame has spread thruout the country as one user told another. Don't give up hope of relief until you have tried this unique formula. SEEING IS BELIEVING!

Just compare Features, Prices and Terms...drive "All Three" of the Leading Low-Priced Cars...then decide

HERE'S JUST WHAT we mean: find out how near "All Three" are priced alike. Ask about time payment terms... how much you'd pay each month. Study the features that give safety, economy, comfort and long-time reliability.

Then drive "All Three" over hills, bumps, in traffic. Compare the way they handle.

Don't buy any car until you do this... until you drive this big, beautiful new Plymouth... and see the extra value it offers for a few dollars' difference. It handles and rides easiest...has extra room.

Plymouth is America's most economical full-size car... owners report 18 to 24 miles per gallon! It's the only one of "All Three" with 100% hydraulic brakes and Safety-Steel body. And you will see that it's the most beautiful.

Plymouth's sensational success has been won on this friendly, fair invitation: "Look at All Three." So you know it must be a great car. All right...see a Plymouth dealer, and find out for yourself!

"'All Three' Cost about the Same," says Edward Tate—builder of bridges and dams, "but Plymouth's extra value decided me. For about the same price, Plymouth gives greater safety, comfort, reliability and economy... I'm getting about 20 miles per gallon!"

Transport Plane Is Forced Down

Nine Passengers On Newark-Cleveland Airline Uninjured By Forced Landing

(International News Service)

NORWALK, O., Mar. 17.—Uninjured and in good spirits, the nine passengers of a Newark-Cleveland United Airlines plane which made an emergency landing in a cornfield near here during a heavy snowstorm, left for Cleveland today by automobile.

"Nobody was even scratched," said Mrs. John Leimbach, who served the stranded air travelers hot coffee and sandwiches.

The twin-motored Boeing airliner was due in Cleveland at 10:20 last night, but Pilot Morris Marrs of New York decided against risking a landing because of poor visibility. Soon afterward he brought the ship down safely on the Gardner farm, 15 miles from here.

Pilot Marrs remained with the plaine while the co-pilot, J. Stewart, Chicago, and the stewardess, a Miss Meuse, accompanied the passengers to Cleveland by auto.

News Briefs From City Hall

Report was received by police last night that someone had stolen kettles and pans from 1406 Hamilton street.

Traffic officers instructed National Youth association members how to direct school children across intersections today.

Someone discharged a pellet from an air gun that broke a window at 414 Young street last night.

Safety standard at North Mill street and Sycamore Way was bowled over three times last night, police report.

Officers instructed truck drivers to remove their trucks from the sidewalk of East Washington street near Butler avenue, Monday.

Owing to traffic difficulties, Patrolmen Kennedy and H. E. Richards worked overtime this morning.

Congregation Will Have Dinner Event

A congregational dinner will take place at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday in the First U. P. church and will be followed by an attractive program of music by a men's octette and talks. It is believed that the affair will bring a large crowd together in an evening of fellowship.

MOONEY CASE AGAIN ON TRIAL AT COURT

The case of the commonwealth against Harry Mooney, charged with manufacturing unlawful liquor, was taken up for trial before Judge James A. Chambers at court this morning.

Mooney was tried on the same charge last week, but after being out all night the jury disagreed and was discharged. There were two others implicated with Mooney, who entered pleas to a part of the charge. Mooney denies the charge

Few Accidents Are Reported

Traffic Conditions Are Bad But No Serious Mishaps Here

Although traffic conditions were very bad, there were few accidents in the city, the worst reported this morning having been the wrecking of an Oldsmobile by a truck on West State street hill about 7 o'clock. The truck was proceeding up the hill enroute to Ashtabula, O., and an Oldsmobile with a Pennsylvania license D9077, was in its rear. The truck slid backward against the auto, pinning it against a telephone pole.

W. J. Lennig, 1110 East Washington street, reported he was driving an auto east on East Washington street and at the intersection of Croton avenue, his auto was in a collision with a machine driven by Lawrence Pascarella, of 816½ South Jefferson street. Both cars were damaged.

Makes Charges Against Jones

Raushenbush Demands Hopkins Probe Action By W. P. A. Head

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 17.—Charging Edward N. Jones, state WPA chief, with using government funds for political purposes, Stephen Raushenbush, chairman of the Pennsylvania Security League and chief investigator for the Senate munitions committee, today demanded a thorough investigation from Harry L. Hopkins, federal relief head.

The charges grew from a mimeographed letter attacking Raushenbush and Harold J. Ruttenberg, state organizer for the league, which Raushenbush charged Jones placed in pay envelopes for WPA workers in western Pennsylvania. By telegram and letter, Raushenbush pointed out to Hopkins the letter appeared shortly after the state executive committee of the league filed charges against Jones with the WPA labor policies board in Washington.

See Gov. Landon As Taking Lead

Will Have Largest Support On First Ballot At Cleveland

MOVEMENT IS GAINING RAPIDLY

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas probably will go into the Republican national convention in Cleveland next June with more first ballot strength than any of the other candidates—and, what is more important, tremendous reserve, or secondary strength.

Political leaders, Democratic as well as Republican, were pretty well convinced of this today as they reviewed the momentum which the Landon movement has attained in the past fortnight

Oklahoma's 21 delegates dropped into the Kansan's column yesterday, pledged and bound by the unit rule through action of the state convention Kansas, of course, will be for Landon, and the expectation is general that bordering states in the grain belt will fall into line as convention time approaches

What impresses the leaders more than merely this display of midwestern support, which might be termed sectional, is the spread of the Landon movement on the two coasts. Gov. Marriam of California, came out for the Kansas governor a few days ago, which rather tends to upset ex-President Herbert Hoover's hope for an unpledged California delegation. A majority of the Republican county chairmen in New Jersey informally declared for the Kansan's nomination.

If this momentum continues through the ten weeks intervening before the Cleveland convention, Gov. Landon's friends are convinced he will not only go into the balloting the favorite, but the eventual winner.

As matters now stand, ten weeks before the convention, Gov. Landon, Senator Borah of Idaho, and Col. Frank Knox constitute the leading candidates. Borah and Knox have formally declared their candidacies by entering preferential primaries. Knox has entered his home state of Illinois. Borah has entered Ohio and Illinois, and contemplates putting his name up in other states.

Meanwhile, Gov. Landon has elected to remain in his state house in Topeka, attending his gubernatorial duties, entering no primaries, and making few speeches. The Kansas executive, in fact, has made but two speeches since his name was thrust into the spotlight, while Col. Knox has been conducting an extensive speaking campaign, covering all sections of the country, and Borah sets out this week for Ohio and Illinois where he will make perhaps a dozen speeches.

lowance for material and equipment so that the percentage in this program amounts to about 7.6 per cent.

Only Reason Given

"The only reason advanced thus far by any of the councilmen for their refusal to start Program "A" is given by Councilmen B. F. Butler and Joseph D. Alexander. They said it would be 'political suicide' for council to start one program before the other two. We had every intention of starting Programs "B" and "C" just as soon as the final allocation of money was made. In order to get Program "A" started we got the special grant of $9,000 over and above the regular 4.2 per cent for material and equipment. A week ago council promised to do something within a week. We said we would wait until Friday, March 13, and that if nothing had been done then we would cancel the $248,000 which has been lying ready for use.

"Friday, March 13, came and went and nothing was said or done by council. Monday, March 16, council met and did nothing in the matter. We can wait no longer. Apparently council has no intention of going through with its promises to the property owners and we might just as well cancel the allocation and use it in other projects.

"Accordingly, I have instructed the Lawrence county supervisor, Charles McGill, to formally notify council of the cancellation of the grant. We are through with the entire street improvement program. Anything that is said or done now will have to come from city council.

"We have been willing, anxious in fact, to get these street improvements started. Program "A" would have meant work for 600 men for six months, would have given the property owners on the streets a permanent improvement and would have been a project of lasting benefit to the property owners. It is not their fault that the projects are being cancelled. They signed up to pay $1.65 per front foot for the work and council would have had to pay for street intersections and frontage in front of city property."

"Futile To Waste Time"

"Convinced that city council does not expect to do anything we have decided that it is futile to waste any more time arguing the question. Let me say that the WPA has always been willing to do this work, wants to do it, but cannot do it without council's authority. If city council does not want this work done, if they want the money spent in other places in the county or the district, we must abide by their decision."

The streets included in Program "A" are as follows:

Raymond street, 750 feet.
Leasure avenue, 1,250 feet.
Garfield avenue, 3,000 feet.
Englewood avenue, 2,250 feet.
Sumner avenue, 1,350 feet.
Hazelcroft avenue, 800 feet.
Fairfield avenue, 650 feet.
Chartes street, 1,750 feet.

The total grant of the federal government for the work amounts to $248,000, which includes $19,000 for materials and equipment. The cost to the city would be $37,000.

Other Programs

Program "B" includes the following streets:

Richelieu avenue, 772 feet.
Hillcrest avenue, 670 feet.
Albert street, 2,487 feet.
Edgewood avenue, 825 feet.
Clenmore boulevard, 824 feet.
Waldo street, 490 feet.
Cunningham avenue, 1,287 feet.
Norwood avenue, 821 feet.
Meyer avenue, 824 feet.
Park avenue, 294 feet.
Friendship street, 652 feet.
Home street, 671 feet.
Reynolds street, 1,158 feet.
Edison avenue, 577 feet.
Euclid avenue, two projects, 3,288 and 817 feet.
Falls street, 265 feet.
Laurel avenue, 2,488 feet.
Clenmore boulevard, 824 feet.

The cost of Programs "B" and "C" would be about $500,000

The letter of C. F. McGill to city council follows:

New Castle, Penna.
508 Greer Building,
March 17, 1936.

Mr. Glenn R. Throop
City Engineer
City of New Castle
New Castle, Pennsylvania.

Re: Project SP No. 37-29 WPA No. 6149. "City of New Castle- Grading and Repaving of Eight City Streets."

Dear Mr. Throop:

I have been instructed by Mr. Beltz to inform the City Council that sometime during the current week he will be obliged to cancel the Federal Funds allocated to the above project.

As you no doubt recall the Council agreed to give Mr. Beltz their decision on Friday, March 13 either for or against opening up this project.

This, they have failed to do and since we can make no definite arrangement with them there is no alternative other than to turn the funds back into the Federal Government to be used elsewhere where needed. The funds amounting to approximately $250,000.00 have been allocated and in our hands lying idle since February 3, 1936.

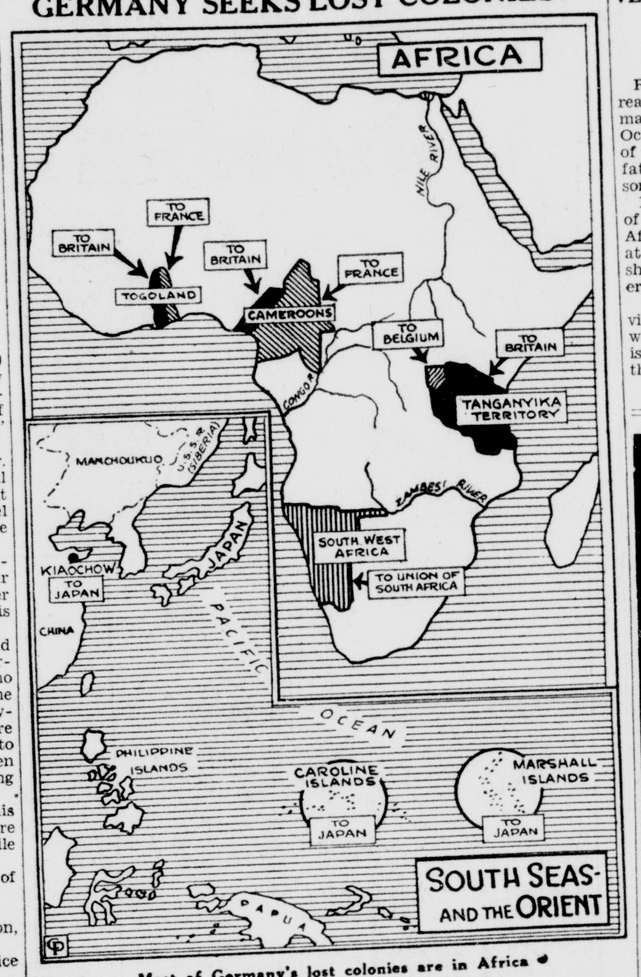

It would be folly to continue this inaction when there is such dire need of funds for other worthwhile projects in all the districts.

Will you kindly inform Council of the cancellation of this project.

Yours very truly.

District No. 14.

GERMANY SEEKS LOST COLONIES?

Most of Germany's lost colonies are in Africa

Above map shows the colonies taken from Germany at the close of the World war and for which Reichsfuehrer Hitler may dicker prior to turning an ear to peace negotiations. The lost German colonies are shown shaded and the country to which they were awarded is noted. Most of the German territory lost is in Africa.

VETS' CHILDREN WEAR BIBS FOR SANCTIONS NOTE

(International News Service)

ROME—Benito Mussolini has already kept part of the promise he made to his people in the speech of October 2nd, 1935; that the memory of sanctions would be "handed from father to son, and from sons to their sons and grandsons."

He has ordered that all children of soldiers who are fighting in East Africa and who are being cared for at the expense of the Government shall be reminded of sanctions every moment of their waking hours.

All such children have been provided with bibs around the rim of which, in letters four inches tall, is inscribed: "I shall never forget the date November 18th, 1935."

A child's natural curiosity and its teacher's patriotism will do the rest.

Since bibs are things which in Italy are usually worn one generation after another, Il Duce has seen to it that as least the children of those who fought in East Africa will have tangible mementoes of the "inquitous" sanctions to pass on to their children and grandchildren.

KISS CELEBRATION WAS A BOOMERANG

(International News Service)

VICENZA, Italy—Mansueti Gheno 18, of Valsegna, a nearby village, wanted to celebrate the wedding of his favorite cousin so she would remember it all her life. He succeeded. He, too, will remember it a long time.

Putting together the explosives from shells his father had brought back from the Great War, he made a huge bomb and planted it in a field near the village, timed to explode at the instant when the bride received her nuptial kiss.

The terrific explosion rocked the countryside and broke every window pane in the town.

Gheno is now in jail on charges of causing an explosion without a permit—and more serious—of having kept in his home explosives brought from the last war, a felony under Italian law.

Greek fire was an incendiary composition used by the Byzantine Greeks. It is supposed to have been made of asphalt, saltpeter and sulphur. It would burn on and under water.

Egbert, who reigned from 827 to 839, was the first king of England.

SUFFERED EVERY SPRING FOR TWENTY YEARS

Learned The Secret Of How To Feel Full Of Pep From The World's Tonic Lecturer

"I used to dread the coming of Spring," said W. J. Cooper of New Castle, Pa., a man 56 years old, while talking with the World's Tonic druggist. "Somehow when Nature began to brighten things up, I got dull and listless. My appetite was poor, I was cold and just wanted to loaf around the fire or in the warm sun every Spring.

"People used to talk about Spring fever. Guess I must have had it. But one night I heard the World's Tonic lecturer explain why I felt that way. He said the rich, heavy food we ate in the winter, the way we lived indoors, and our lack of exercise made our body sluggish. Often, he said, that sluggishness resulted in catarrhal conditions. Then our whole body was poisoned by waste matter we didn't throw off, and the blood was thick with impurities. That set me thinking, and I realized he was describing my case. I took a bottle of World's Tonic and its effect was wonderful. It wasn't a week before I began to feel better. My catarrh was cleared up and my constipation was over as my bowels work naturally. My kidneys and bladder are now throwing off the poisons. My rheumatism has left me and I began to feel full of energy. In two weeks I was glad it was Spring.

"That's what ails a lot of us. Instead of being Spring that hurts us, it's the load of impurities we carry over from the Winter. Now a bottle or two of World's Tonic makes me feel like a new man every Spring."

World Tonic is sold by Eckerd's; Paisley's, and all other reliable druggists. (A-167)

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PARTY FINE SUCCESS

A large and appreciative audience was entertained when the Knights of Columbus staged their annual St. Patrick's concert in their assembly hall, with a variety program and a one-act play that scored a huge success. The grand knight, Thomas Flannagan, was master of ceremonies and he introduced the Rev. Fr. Watterson, who delivered the principal address of the evening.

Following, the additional program for the evening was presented. A quartet consisting of Steven Griffith, Jack Griffith, Francis Morrissey and Thomas McNicholas, opened activities with selected numbers. The next feature was put on in the form of a comedy, by two of New Castle's premier entertainers, Harry Elwell and Hugh Hannon. Eileen Murphy favored the assembly with a song and dance skit.

The program was concluded with a one-act play given by the Knights of Columbus Dramatic club. Three of the cast, Mrs. William Howley, Thomas Cunningham and Francis Morrissey, remembered by the audience for their former connection with Father Clifford's Dramatic club of several years ago, showed they have lost none of the finesse that made them famous in those days. A new artist among the local stage folks, Miss Marie McLaughlin, also showed exceptional ability.

Mixed Dozen Club

Members of the Mixed Dozen club were guests Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berkley Dillon, Orchard street. Cards held sway, prizes going to Henry Leichty and Mrs. Carlos Teele. During the informal social period that ensued the hostess served a tempting repast at a table appointed in modernistic fashion with green and crystal as the theme.

April 4 the group will meet with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Leichty, Liberty street.

St. Vitus Auxiliary.

Knights of St. Vitus auxiliary will hold their regular meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in their club rooms on Maitland street. Mrs. Caroline Maielli will be honored with a hankie shower, in observance of her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Anna Guido and her team will be in charge.

MR. AND MRS. ISAAC HEAR HERBERT HOOVER

Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Isaac of 329 Laurel boulevard, this city, have returned from a four-day trip to New York, where they attended the 12th annual A. R. A. Association reunion, held Saturday, March 14. The event took place in the Engineers club house at West 40th street, New York, with a banquet opening the program, served at 7:30 o'clock wtih a banquet opening the program, served at 7:30 o'clock.

Herbert Hoover, ex-president of the United States, and his on Allan were among those in attendance, and the former made the main address of the evening This organization is composed of engineers and the meetings held once a year in New York are looked forward to with enthusiasm. Ninety were present at this year's celebration.

In the evening a party was planned especially for the wives and girl friends, which was held at the Russian dining hall at East 55th street.

J. Edgington's, Jr., Hosts.

Mr. and Mrs. James Edgington, Jr., of the Ellwood road entertained a number of couples Saturday evening at a nicely appointed 6 o'clock dinner. St. Patrick suggestions were used in the decorations, and in serving, the hostess was aided by Mrs. William Kinney, Mrs. Earl White and Mrs. George Black.

Dancing and tables of 500 claimed attention afterwards, prizes going to Mrs. Carl Black, Mrs. Charles Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. George Black. At midnight a tempting snack was served, with Mrs. Leslie Harris assisting. This concluded the evening's festivities.

Stitch-A-Bit Club.

Stitch-A-Bit club members were graciously received in the home of Miss Margaret Sankey, Adams street, Monday evening, for their usual two-table card event. Those winning the pretty favors included Susan Wallace and Elma Badger. Miss Mabel Kocher and Mrs. Amos Zeigler, both special guests, each received a lovely gift from the hostess.

In serving a dainty menu afterwards, at tables arranged in a color scheme of green and white, Miss Sankey was assisted by Margaret Bowers and Mabel Kocher. Monday, March 30, the group will be entertained by Susan Wallace, Adams street.

O. E. S. CHOIR 105 HONORS MATRON

Choir members of New Castle Chapter No. 160, Order of the Eastern Star, entertained at a lovely dinner party Monday evening in the Elks club, to do honor to their worthy matron, Mrs. Grace Crawford.

Covers were arranged for 20 at banquet tables, prettily appointed in St. Patrick's suggestions. Unique hand made favors, in further carrying out this idea, were found at each place, and displayed the work of Miss Louise Davies.

After partaking of a delicious three-course menu, Mrs. Crawford was presented with a beautiful gift by Miss Mary Harvard, in behalf of those surrounding her. Mrs. Margaret Whieldon, incoming worthy matron, and a guest of the occasion, was remembered by the assemblage with a bouquet of flowers.

Following, the remaining hours were spent in playing bingo, with all participants receiving a prize, which, too, was an added memento of a most delightful affair.

Unemployed Will March On Capital

WASHINGTON, March 17.—A march of the unemployed on Washington on April 11 was announced today by Herbert Benjamin, secretary of the National Unemployment Councils.

The march, it was said, would be a protest against reduction of relief expenditures by the administration.

Insurance Firms To Leave Mexico

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—All American insurance companies doing business in Mexico have advised the Mexican government they are withdrawing from business as of March 16 (yesterday), the state department was informed today by Consul General Bowman at Mexico City.

The reason given was a law enacted last August which provides that all foreign insurance companies doing business in Mexico must keep 75 per cent of their capital and reserves in the country.

Color naming ability is one of the most commonly used tests for estimating one phase of a child's mental development. In fact, this ability develops so slowly that an average child of five years is only supposed to be able to name four colors—red, yellow, blue and green. To develop this sense, parents should provide the child with a variety of colored objects, and by color I mean the primary colors which are deep and rich, and not the baby pinks and blues we so like to give to children.

City Is Enrolled In National Safety Contest

The stroke of Mayor Charles E. McGrath's pen this morning at 10 o'clock formally enrolled New Castle in the 1936 National Traffic Safety contest in which hundreds of cities and towns have entered.

The city's entrance in the contest was announced as a part of the Junior Chamber of Commerce's vigorous "safe driving" campaign which began yesterday.

A committee of the junior chamber met the mayor at City hall at 10 and witnessed the chief executive's act of signing.

The mayor, in a proclamation yesterday, called upon the citizenry to do everything in its part to cooperate in the movement to reduce street and highway accidents.

It was apparent today as the campaign gained momentum that the clubs, the schools and organizations of various kinds will feature careful driving programs for a week or more. The junior chamber plans to plug away for a considerable time at the three basic "E's of traffic safety—education, engineering and enforcement.

Hoping to cut in half the 1935 accident toll in New Castle—879 accidents—the junior chamber has set out for a campaign of education. Clubs and the schools are being contacted and urged to read literature carefully prepared for any driver's benefit.

City police figures indicated that for the frigid February of this year the accident toll was 119, compared with 54 for the February of 1934. Blame was placed on the increased hazards brought about by perilious driving conditions.

"Today is a sample of dangerous driving weather," General Chairman A. Leland Houk declared, "and we hope motorists pay heed to our safe driving plea. Let's cut the 1935 toll of 879 accidents away down."

Liquor Smuggling Ring Is Indicted At Columbia, S. C.

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Mar. 17.—Indictments against 35 members of an alleged international liquor smuggling ring were returned today by a Columbia, S. C., federal grand jury, the treasury department announced this afternoon.

The indictments resuluted from the capture of the Norwegian vessel "Reidun" and the motorboat "Pronto" near Georgetown, S. C., treasury officials stated.

The "Reidun," according to the treasury, was loaded with 125,000 gallons of Belgian alcohol.

Among those indicted were citizens of Norway, Great Britain, Canada and the United States, including members of the crews of both ships, "contact" men, alcohol distributing agents in this country, and backers of the liquor syndicate.

arily colder weather gave the flood victims meagre hope for relief.

Relief work in the hard-hit Susquehanna Valley was imperiled by the new high water as were workers pumping out flooded homes in other sections of eastern and central Pennsylvania.

Heavy property damage was reported in Pittsburgh and in other districts along the Monongahela and their tributaries as the rainfall and thaw sent the streams higher and higher.

Heavy Rain

Official rainfall measurements in Pittsburgh in the past 24 hours reached the almost unprecedented figure of 1.69 inches. An average fall of four-tenths an inch had pelted down in the previous 24 hours. Throughout the western Pennsylvania watershed, the weather bureau reported rain averaging an inch and a half in the past 24 hours. Measurements at the "point" in Pittsburgh showed a rise of seven-tenths of an inch an hour.

Landslides and road washouts added to the perils facing motorists and pedestrians. The once frost-hardened ground gave way easily under the constant flow of water.

Traffic was detoured at several points on Saw Mill Run Boulevard in Pittsburgh when Saw Mill Creek backed up and flooded cellars. Residents in some sections waded through two feet of water. A heavy retaining wall was upset in the Northside, threatening a section of street with a landslide.

Street cars and automobiles were stalled in the flooded streets in the west end.

Flood Near Greensburg

The low-lying districts near Greensburg faced a flood which may equal that of last August 3. Jacks Run, traversing the city from north to south overflowed its banks, flooded cellars and covered part of the polo field north of Greensburg. Street car tracks of the West Penn railways between Jeannette and Greensburgh were under six inches of water.

Eight families at Dunbar, near Connellsville, were forced to abandon their homes when the floodwaters filled the cellars and first floors. About two dozen homes were threatened. Firemen were standing by.

Navigation was expected to be suspended on the Monongahela which rose more rapidly than at any time this winter. The lockmaster at lock No. 4 said the water was expected to go three feet above the 32-foot flood stage there.

Lowlands along the Monongahela were flooded and the water was reported rising as much as one foot an hour in the river. A crest of 35 feet was expected at midnight when the river showed a rise of five feet this morning from the readings of yesterday .

There is no flower that has absolutely black blossoms. Certain varieties of pansies are almost black, and Scabiosa is very dark.

White Withdraws

To The Republican Voters Of The Second Legislative District Of Lawrence County:

Ever since I have been old enough to vote, I have been a Republican.

I also have been one of those Republicans that voted Republican on election day.

This year is an unusually important year. If ever the Republicans should have harmony and party loyalty, this is the year.

With this thought in mind, I became satisfied that we had too many aspirants for the Republican nomination to the office of Representative in the General Assembly from the Second Legislative District...Knowing that I could help to reduce this number and make the Republican nominee more secure in November, and in the interests of party harmony, and believing it to be for the welfare of the Republican Party, which should be and is greater than the personal ambitions of any man, I have withdrawn my name as a candidate.

In November I will support the Republican Nominee whoever he is.

I want to thank my many friends that made my campaign a pleasure. Their loyal support, their helpfulness and their kind words will be long remembered most gratefully as the passing days lengthen into the years that are to come.

Respectfully yours,
CLINTON B. WHITE.

Students' Trip To Musical Contests Will Be Arranged

Civic Music Body Names Transportation Committee Last Night

Arrangements for transporting New Castle's contestants to the Slippery Rock and Greenville music contest eliminations this spring were initiated Monday night when the Citizens and Parents Music association met at the senior high school.

Manley Bates, Charles G. Lindner and Howard Meehan were named to a transportation committee to make plans for transporting the participants.

The meeting last night was one of the best attended since the group was organized. Mrs. Joseph F. Replogle, reconsidering her resignation from the presidency at the request of the membership, continues as leader of the association.

Pennsylvania's state director of music, lauding the civic spirit of the members in a letter, promised to "drop in" at some future meeting date.

Refreshments were served the group in the cafeteria at the close of the meeting by a social committee headed by DeLace Cole. Among the guests last night were A. C. Hyde and J. H. McIlvenny, members of the board of education.

SMALL FIRE ON CHESTNUT STREET

City firemen were called to the home of W. K. Allison, of 606 Chestnut street, at 7:20 last evening, to extinguish a small blaze in the home. Fourth ward firemen quickly put out the blaze with soda and acid. The loss was small.

A Young lad who helps his mother about the house has found that a pair of automobile goggles keeps the dust out of his yes when he shakes rugs. They also help if they are worn when you are peeling onions.

Father Delaney Preaches Tonight

Noted Orator To Deliver Second Sermon Of Series At St. Mary's

Rev. James M. Delaney, pastor of the Holy Cross church, South Side, Pittsburgh, a noted orator, will preach the second in a series of sermons this evening at St. Mary's church, North Beaver street.

Father Delaney's subject will be "Was the Catholic Church a Failure Under Peter"? Considerable interest has been manifested by non-Catholics as well as Catholics in the talks by this well known man. St. Mary's church was filled to capacity last Tuesday and an equally large attendance is expected tonight. The service will open at 7:45 o'clock.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

CENTRAL PHALANX MEETS

Members of the Central chapter of the Phalanx fraternity will gather tonight in the Boyles avenue home of John Templeton for entertainment which the social committee will provide.

Games will furnish the main entertainment for the evening.

Last Sunday evening the members attended services at the First Christian church.

New Castle Team Going By Train To Pittsburgh

Will Leave New Castle At 3:15 P. M., Will Return From Pittsburgh At 12:30

Owing to the severe snow storm and the bad condition of the various highways, it was decided that the New Castle high basketball team will go to Pittsburgh this afternoon by train, using the P. & L. E. lines.

The train will leave here at 3:15 o'clock and will arrive in Pittsburgh at 4:50. The game will start at 7:30 o'clock. The New Castle high team will leave Pittsburgh tonight on the 11:30 train and arrive in New Castle at 12:35 o'clock.

The New Castle high party is headed by Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner and Head Coach Phil Bridenbaugh.

The P. & L. E. rate to Pittsburgh will be $1.25 per round trip, for anyone caring to leave on the 3:15 o'clock train with the team. This is the only P. & L. E. train that will get you to Pittsburgh on time for the game. The stadium can easily be reached by street cars.

ARE YOU AN ODD FELLOW?

All around us we see men, women and children denied many privileges they should enjoy freely. They belong to no church, they have no fraternal association. In times of prosperity they made no investment for the future, so when adversity overtook them they were alone, and even though governmental agencies are doing their utmost to assist in every way possible, these people are unhappy and discouraged. Every young man should assure his future happiness by membership in some church and by membership in the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

FIND BONES OF TOWN'S FOUNDER

(International News Service)

URBANA, O., Mar. 17.—This city will soon make arrangements for a suitable resting place for the remains of its founder, Col. William Ward, who laid out the frontier town in 1805.

The graves of Ward, his wife, Rebecca, and two sons were discovered in a forgotten cemetery when a farmer unearthed the skeletons while ploughing in his cornfield. Markers bearing the names of members of the family were still legible.

Daughters of the American Revolution have arranged for new graves and markers in Oak Dale cemetery.

Hallett Johnston Feted On Birthday

Friends Meet For Party In Honor Of 16th Birthday Anniversary

Nineteen friends of Hallett Johnston gathered at his home on West Clayton street Saturday night to celebrate his 16th birthday.

They engaged in a number of games and contests during much of the evening for which various prizes were awarded. Miss Lenora Christley and Robert Walter won the "green" contest, Miss Harriet Leighty and Tom Holliday won the "skates" contest, Misses Rosetta Treharne and Laura Mae Martin tied for the girls' prize in a St. Patrick's game, and Arnold McCartney won the boy's prize.

A St. Patrick's lunch was served at small tables by Mrs. E. M. Johnston, assisted by Mrs. H. H. McCombs and Mrs. Harold Simkins.

Badly Hurt In Fall Down Steps

Mrs. C. W. Charlebois of Highland avenue has been admitted to the Jameson Memorial hospital to undergo treatment for severe injuries received in a fall down the cellar stairs of her home. She broke her arm, a rib and had painful injuries to her head and bruises about her body.

Mrs. Charlebois is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Johnston of West Clayton street.

Progressive Party On Thursday Night

Young People Of Three Churches To Join In Evening Of Festivities

A "progressive" party is planned for Thursday night by the young people's societies of the Christian, Presbyterian and Methodist churches of the Seventh ward.

They will meet at the Mahoning M. E. church community room at 8 o'clock and from there go to the Madison Avenue Christian and Mahoningtown Presbyterian churches where games will be provided. They will return to the Methodist church for refreshments, and an entertainment which will include a play and skit.

Committees have been carefully planning for the affair and expect it to be one of the most enjoyable of its kind ever held.

William Marousis On Good Will Tour

William G. Marousis, 420 Garfield avenue, assistant manager of the Regent Theatre will leave New Castle Wednesday night for New York City where on March 21 he will sail on the S. S. Vulcania with about 2000 other Ahepans on a good will trip to Greece.

Mr. Marousis came to the United States from Greece about 28 years ago, landing in New York on March 25, 1908. He came to New Castle and with his brother Speer Marousis has been in the theatre business for the past quarter century.

This will be his first visit back to Greece since he came, his home town there being Argos, home of the famed Agamemnon, 400 miles from Athens. It is quite a city with a population of 15,000 and there Mr. Marousis' father, brother and sister reside.

The good will tour of the Ahepans is similar to the one made several years ago and will require about four months.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

HOW COLLEGE YOUTHS ACT

Perhaps 500,000 students will be home from college around Easter. Their attitude while home will depend largely on their home training in earlier years.

Will they remember their old friends who used to mean so much to them? Will they show appreciation for their parents? Will they be considerate of the mother? Will they, indeed, share in some of the housework which their coming has increased? And, when they go back to college, will they take with them all their things?

Or will they, childishly, be writing, wiring or telephoning back the next few weeks for the various articles they forgot? Will they spend nearly all their nights away from home and all their days in bed? Will their visit home add greatly to the burdens of the mother?

Some college students will bring a friend along, or several of them. Usually such friends are warmly welcomed by the self-sacrificing parents. But all too often the young man or woman coming home from college makes himself or herself a human parasite upon the family, not showing the slightest appreciation or consideration of the old folk.

Nevertheless, now and then a college student, man or woman, while home on vacation will, wonderful to relate, pitch in and help about the house. I once heard of a daughter who, during a two-week vacation, prevailed upon her father and mother to go off for a week-end rest while she ran the place. Most parents would have heart failure upon hearing such a proposal from a child. Some college students we also know who, while home on vacation, have spent considerable time visiting with their parents, telling much about their college life and aspirations.

Give Responsibilities.

Now let me entreat parents whose children are st"l young, to educate these children now in home responsibilities, and not to make too many needless sacrifices for them; to train them early, boys as well as girls, to help about the house. I know a college lad who voluntarily washes dishes with his father and mother when he comes home, and they have a happy time visiting the while. Children who grow up in a home where they feel they are participating members of the family, learn to appreciate their parents. Later, when they go away and come back, their return is a joyous experience for all concerned.

Even those college students who earlier had not been trained properly in sharing home responsibilities should, with their intelligence and education, be able to reveal good sportsmanship toward those who make their college attendance possible, especially while home on vacation.

On March 28, at 11 o'clock a. m., eastern standard time, I shall discuss "Home Restraints" on the American Schools program, over the NBC network. It would make me happy to hear from any of my readers who happen to listen in.

There is nothing smarter than the traditional black with white. Black with touches of white metal cloth—black with dainty white lingerie, and black with white military braid—are just a few of this season's version of the ever-popular combination.

Juveniles Will Present Program For Dinner Dance

Boy Scouts Of Grove City Will Present Minstrel Show Friday Evening

One of the most interesting programs presented this winter for the members of the Valley of New Castle Consistory and their friends will be given at the dinner-dance Friday evening in The Cathedral which will be in the nature of a Saint Patrick's party.

A cast of 50 boys from Grove City will present a minstrel show, which recently made a great hit at that place. They have a number of specialty numbers in their repertoire and will have a program which will interest all who attend.

In addition, a group of children from Croton avenue school, who gave an exhibition of the old-fashioned square dance at the recent amateur program at The Cathedral, will present their program in costume.

There will be the usual dinner at 6:30, followed by the program in the auditorium at 8 o'clock, with dancing and cards concluding the evening's entertainment.

Fraternity Hazing May Be Abolished

"Hell Week" Is Threatened With Extinction By Action Of Dr. Galbreath

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, Pa., Mar. 17—An old tradition on Westminster campus, "Hell-week", a period of discipline for fraternity pledges just prior to spring initiation, was threatened last week with extinction, following President R. F. Galbreath's request to members of the interfraternity council to cooperate in the abolition of all hazing ceremonies.

President Galbreath was acting in accord with recent action taken by the National Inter-fraternity council who agreed that "Hell-week" should be eliminated as a practice. Many larger colleges and universities have already abolished the hazing aspect of initiation ceremonies.

Chief among the objections to "Hell-week" are its dangers of physical injuries to participants, and its causing the loss of practically an entire week's work in classes because of lack of concentration.

Campus men and alumni who regret the disappearance of the old fraternity institution claim that the discipline and "ability to take it" are good for undergraduates. "Old timers" feel that college campuses are getting too tame and civilized, and that "college spirit" is gradually dying out.

No definite action has been taken by the fraternities on the question to date.

ROTARY CLUB OBSERVES RURAL-URBAN DAY

Penn State Man Heard As Rotary Dines Rural Men

Prof. Kenneth Hood, Native Of County, Day's Principal Speaker

PICTURES BRIGHTER DAYS FOR FARMERS

Gilkey Is Program Chairman; President McCulloch Gives Welcome

Brighter days were heralded for American agriculture by a Pennsylvania State college professor as he spoke before New Castle's Rotarians and their 50 and more farmer guests at the Rotary club's annual rural-urban "get-together" at The Castleton Monday.

"Edwin Markham's famed 'man with the hoe' has become the 'man with the hope'," Prof. Kenneth Hood, the speaker, told the audience.

Prosperity Stake Mutual

He declared that the businessman has a stake in the farmer's prosperity and that the farmer has a stake in the properity of business.

Prof. Hood came as Penn State's representative of its department of agricultural economics to discuss, briefly but scholarly, "The Farmer and the Business Man." He is a native of Lawrence county, and his father, Charles Hood, a resident of Hickory township, was one of the guests who heard him.

Rotary each year plays host to the rural representatives. President Harold R. McCulloch, who happens also to be the county farm agent for Lawrence county, extended a warm welcome to the visitors in behalf of the club.

During the dinner period the group heard announcements of the Junior Chamber of Commerce's "safe driving" campaign, of the March 27 and 28 scoutcraft exposition of the Boy Scouts of the benefit operetta, "Lelawala," to be given at the Senior high school on March 19 and 20.

Rotarian S. Houston Rhoads presented the Rotary guests in attendance.

Gilkey Introduces Speaker

Prof. Hood, introduced to the audience by Thomas A. Gilkey, chairman of Rotary's rural-urban committee, spoke in general terms of the future of agriculture and industry and stressed in closing, that "one of the greatest contributions we can make toward the welfare of this nation is to work out this problem of mutual understanding between businessmen and farmers."

"America," he significantly said, "cannot have true prosperity in industry with an impoverished agriculture."

Prof. Hood reminded the group that the farmer is the leading buyer of city products, and, at another point, stated that in 1934 the average daily income of the farmer was $1.39 per day. He pointed that out to show that "we are a long way from the agricultural balance we're trying to reach."

The college man advocated that the farmer and businessman "buy and sell at home." He said that out-of-state potatoes are being sold here while Lawrence county potato growers suffer, and declared that to be true in other farm commodities. He urged farmers to compare the quality of the local businessmen's product and urged businessmen to apply that policy toward farm products.

Seated among the guests at the speakers' table during the meeting was N. E. Sampson, Volant, president of the Lawrence County Agricultural association.

The Rev. Joseph A. Doerr, pastor of St. Joseph's church and a member of Rotary, pronounced the invocation before dinner.

Members of Rotary's rural-urban committee, besides Chairman Gilkey, are Fred C. Taylor and Ivor Davis.

Pymatuning Camp May Be Abandoned

Around $100,000 Has Been Spent And Practically Nothing Done

GREENVILLE, Pa., March 17.—Persistent rumors are current that the CCC camp at Westford, Pymatuning dam area is to be abandoned.

This camp was located about nine months ago at a cost of approximately $20,000. It has cost about $9,000 a month to maintain, so that the total investment now totals around $100,000, and there is practically nothing to show for all this vast expenditure. A few old barns have been razed, a few trees planted. Toward the object of the camp's activities, the parking of the land bordering on Pymatuning reservoir, the result is zero.

All this time the camp has been manned by capable and efficient Army officers and the men in the camp—all colored—have been more than anxious to get to work but somewhere somebody has set the brakes and the project has practically never moved. The 150 men and boys there have been fed and housed but given nothing much to do and next to nothing to improve the Pymatuning area.

CLEVELAND, O., Mar. 17.—Congressman Stephen M. Young tells this one of a naturalization hearing he attended:

Q. Where is Washington?

A. He's dead.

Q. I mean the capital of the United States.

A. Oh, they loaned it all to Europe.

Q. Do you promise to support the Constitution?

A. Me? How can I? I've a wife and six children to support.

Lenten Cantata At Trinity Church On Wednesday Evening

Augmented Choir To Give Beautiful Cantata, "Penitence, Pardon And Peace"

"Penitence Pardon and Peace", a beautiful Lenten cantata by J. H. Maunder will be presented Wednesday night by the choir of Trinity church assisted by Messrs. Harry Evans Frank Fuller, E. C. Gatrall, Russell Urmson and Harry Urmson. Miss Isabel T. Johnson will be at the organ. The soloists are: Mrs. Ves Rice, Miss Nellie Ingram, Bert Malsom, and Harry Evans. The preparation of this musical work has been under the direction of Miss Johnson with Frank Fuller, organist and choirmaster of St. John's church, Youngstown, Ohio conducting two rehearsals. Special care has characterized the preparation.

As a prelude, Miss Johnson will play a "Theme" from the Symphonie Pathetique, Opus 74 by the famous Russian composer P. I. Tschaikowsky and as a postlude, after the service, "Allegro" by C. S. Mallard.

The Rev. Philip C. Pearson, rector of Trinity church will conduct a short service beginning at 8 p. m., tomorrow evening specially arranged as appropriate to the cantata, which will follow after the offering has been taken.

All is planned to be an artistic unity and an appropriate Lenten devotion and tribute to God through the great art of music.

Arrangements have been made to distribute the words of "Penitence, Pardon and Peace" to the members of the congregation so that all may share in it and sing the hymns which are a part of it.

Two Withdraw As Candidates

In the withdrawals of nomination petitions on Monday, March 16, two withdrawals were made from Lawrence county, one from the first legislative district and the other from the second legislative district.

In the first district, Dr. John A. Meehan withdrew as a candidate for the General Assembly on the Democrat ticket. In the second district Clinton W. White of New Wilmington, withdrew as a candidate for General Assembly on the Republican ticket.

THE TUTTS — By Crawford Young

W. P. A. Curtailment Order Is Issued

Upon instructions from Harrisburg, J. Vale Downie, director of district 14, Works Progress Administration today announced a fifteen per cent curtailment in the WPA forces in this district. The curtailment will involve about 712 workers in Lawrence county.

In the announcement Mr. Downie states that the current seasonal revival of industry in the district will take a considerable number of workers from the WPA payrolls.

Consideration will be given to the needs of workers in order that as little general hardship as possible may be caused. Because the women's work projects are just getting under way, women workers will not be affected by the order. The order must be put into effect on or before March 31.

Lawrence County Farms And Farmers

By H. R. McCulloch, County Agent

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

Earl Moffitt, farm management specialist from State College, will speak at a meeting in the Firemen's hall, New Wilmington, Friday, March 20.

The subject of Mr. Moffitt's discussion will be "Where Are We Going?" This talk will include a discussion of various farm management practices. All interested persons are invited to attend.

BEES IN POOR CONDITION

Honey bees in Lawrence county have come through the winter in poor condition for early honey gathering. A large number of colonies have died out-right, many colonies still alive are very weak.

There is no hope of these colonies storing white clover honey if the beekeeper does not give them aid. In many cases these colonies need feed immediately.

A large amount of honey was consumed during the winter in order to keep warm. Most colonies could be put in good condition to gather early honey by adding a pound or two of young bees from the south to the hives which have survived the winter. Experience shows that there is plenty of pollen stored from last year and that the addition of young bees a short time before apple blooming will build the colony up to the honey gathering state very rapidly even through cold spring weather.

The feed to be given to hives at this time should include two parts of granulated sugar, and one part of water. This may be fed through entrances or feeders, or on top of the cluster.

Following a severe winter many queens will be found to lay drone eggs only. Bee keepers should be on the watch for them and requeen with young queens.

On the first warm day that the bees are flying freely, a wise bee keeper will examine any hives that he is not sure are in good condition. This should be done quickly and cover up the hive so as to avoid chilling any brood which may be present. Wind brakes are very important at this time of the year as protected hives will build up more rapidly than unprotected ones.

RED SPIDER EGGS SHOW EARLY SPRAYING NEEDED

The abundance of red spider eggs in some orchards in Lawrence county this year indicate that it will be necessary to pay particular attention to dormant spraying for control.

The only way to kill the eggs while they are dormant is to use either an oil emulsion diluted to a four per cent oil in the dilute spraying or a miscible oil. Miscible oil should be used as recommended by compounders of these materials.

Some growers have used a combination of creosote oil and oil emulsion in an attempt to kill both aphid eggs and red spider eggs. The experience of these men have not been satisfactory because the red spider eggs were not killed by the combinations used. Examinations in orchards during the summer corroborated this condition and so it would be well for growers to depend upon the oil emulsions or miscible oils rather than to mix them with the creosote oil (tar oil.)

The oils should be applied while the apple buds are dormant and spraying should stop as soon as green ends show on the buds. The later that oil sprays can be applied during the dormant period the more effective will be the killing of red spider eggs.

The first of a series of spray information letters calling attention to recommended spray materials and the method of application has been sent to fruit growers requesting that information. Other growers who desire to receive these letters during the spray season may do so by notifying the Agricultural Extension Association Office, 206 Post Office Building, New Castle.

IMPROVE DAMP BARNS BY ADDING INSULATION

The recent long period of cold weather has caused much dampness in many dairy stables. This applies particularly to those with stone or uninsulated masonry walls where it was necessary to reduce the ventilation in order to save heat.

Stone, brink, block and other fireproof materials have advantages but they lack insulating value. One-half inch of good insulating material added to a masonry wall may decrease the heat loss by as much as 50 per cent. Tests on two walls of air-cell concrete blocks showed that the first with a 2-inch dead air space was not satisfactory while the thinner one with one-half inch of insulation showed no dampness at sub-zero temperatures.

The insulation should be on the warm side to stop the flow of the heat outward. Moisture on a wooden ceiling may be largely prevented by placing a layer of hay or chaff on the mow floor, provided there is some ventilation.

A method of ventilating dairy stables without drafts or removing the warm upper air has recently been described by the Agricultural Extension Service of the Pennsylvania State College and plans may be obtained from the Agricultural Extension Office, 206 Post Office Bldg., New Castle. Any man handy with carpenter tools can install the one out-take flue and the numerous small inlets. A well-built barn is necessary for the successful operation.

VARY MEALS WITH EGGS AND PROVIDE FOR HEALTH

When every penny counts, eggs should be served three or four times a week to each child and two or three times a week to each adult, says Miss Mary Vogle, home economics representative.

The nutritional value of eggs has been realized for generations. Perhaps no other food except milk contains such excellent building material. Most of this building material is found in the egg white. The yolk contains an easily digestible fat. Egg yolk is also a rich source of iron, phosphorus and copper.

The vitamin D in egg yolk is noteworthy since few common foods carry such a large amount of this vitamin. Vitamins A, B, C, and G are also present in egg yolk. Is it any wonder that eggs are considered one of our major protective foods? Dr. Henry C. Sherman, of Columbia University, recently said that American people still do not use enough milk and eggs to insure the best possible health.

Eggs because of their high building material should always be cooked slowly at moderate even heat, says Miss Vogle. Eggs should be stored in a cool dry place and if possible in a covered dish. Many high grade eggs become inferior in quality if allowed to remain in a warm room.

Because of the nature of eggs they can be used for breakfast, dinner and supper, either alone or combined with other foods. They can easily form the main dish of a meal, for example: Scrambled eggs and bacon, eggs and rice, eggs baked with cheese, omelets of all kinds., and baked eggs in tomato cups. Eggs also form the basis of some of our most nutritious desserts such as custards, fruit whips and simple cakes and cookies.

NOVENA WILL OPEN TONIGHT AT ST. VITUS

Solemn Novena In Honor Of St. Anthony To Continue Thirteen Weeks

A service tonight will open a solemn novena at St. Vitus church in honor of St. Anthony and in preparation to the Feast of St. Anthony which occurs June 13.

A mass was celebrated at 9:30 a. m., today with Holy Communion, and preceded by confession.

This evening, at 7:30 o'clock, and for the thirteen consecutive Tuesday evenings, special services will be conducted.

The shrine has been carefully prepared for the novena. St. Vitus is the only church in Lawrence county that has the privilege of having these services in St. Anthony's honor, and it is the only church with a relic of St. Anthony. Large crowds from out-of-the-city places are expected to attend, as well as New Castle members and friends of the congregation.

NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—Randomusing: I am forever being startled by people who belie appearances. . . . For instance that man in the chair next to mine in the barber's the other afternoon. . . . He wore spats, waxed mustachios and a vaguely familiar air; I was sure he was a theatric and we struck up a confab under the hot towels. . . . Turned out he was a traveling salesman for a distributor of glass tableware; he entertained me with a discourse on the manufacture of tumblers, pony-glasses and creamers. . . . "I am taking care of my stomach now," he confessed, "because I am going South and may have to drink a lot of bad liquor with my customers. Lord, how I hate to drink! Seems I drink all the time, too, on my Southern trips." . . . He was quite sad about it. . . .

Micky Alpert, the sleek master of ceremonines for the whooperies, has been fighting a jinx for years. . . . It seems he looked, gesticulated and sang in a manner highly suggestive of Harry Richman and all the ringsiders whispered that he was just an imitator. . . . But Alpert had never even seen Richman until about a year ago. . . . Broadway is funny; now that Micky has won them, he can resemble Richman all he wants and the fans think it fetching. . . . Thought in passing: I am so weary of performers who attempt to travesty Jimmy Durante and Rudy Vallee. . . .

What has become of all the fandancers who raved and roared about the city a year or so ago? . . . Only the cheaper burlesques now offer these restless ladies, although I am told that there is a school for fan dancers going strong in a Broadway side-street. . . . Matriculants must be accompanied by their mothers or bring a signed permission from home and the Broadwayite who tipped me off swears that the mothers often register along with their tots for this most exotic of careers.

I don't think I'd go for this antculture fad that's gripping the town. . . . Glass cases to contain the hills and your choice of "aristocrats" or "workers" to watch. . . . Guppies are less strenuous and less rife with symbolism. . . . The only time ants are fun is in childhood on the back lot. . . . Then stamping on their tiny cities, you can feel like King of the World. . . . In a glass case in an apartment in New York they'd merely seem like so many city-dwellers in miniature—and a wee bit grim at that. . . .

Living in New York you incline to forget some of the pristine thrills of the town. . . . The other night I strolled Fifth Avenue late and popped up into the observation tower of the Empire State Building. . . . The sky was clear and the swarms of lights up and down the Island and in far Queens and Brooklyn made a darkly merry tableau. . . . There is nothing like this experience in town and perhaps not in the world, although the top of the Eiffel Tower transmits a very different wallop. . . . New York is always full of lights, but Paris is a black town at midnight, except for the faint glows of Montmartre and Montparnasse. . . .

VOTERS OPPOSED TO TAX FOR SALARIES

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., Mar. 17.—Voters at a special election yesterday rejected, 3,219 to 1,480, a proposed tax increase of 2.55 mills for 15 years to provide municipal operating expenses to liquidate $145,000 in delinquent salaries, bills and notes held by banks.

Rainy weather was blamed for less than half of the city's electors going to the polls. One hundred and forty city employes, whose salaries are five months in arrears, campaigned in behalf of the proposal.

"Mystery Rocket" Is Explained By Inventor Today

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 17.—A scientific secret which Col. Charles A. Lindbergh has shared for six months was made public Monday, as Dr. Robert H. Goddard revealed details of the successful rocket motor which he has used in 700-mile-an-hour test flights at Roswell, N. M.

Col. Lindbergh flew to the New Mexico cactus-desert laboratory last September with Harry F. Guggenheim, New York financier. They inspected Dr. Goddard's latest liquid-fuel rocket, and decided to continue financial support of the experiments by the Guggenheim Foundation.

The motor that met with their approval was described today by Dr. Goddard, physicist of Clark University, Worcester, Mass., in a report issued through the Smithsonian Institution.

Decide On Chamber

"The combustion chamber finally decided upon for use in flight was 5¾ inches in diameter and weighed five pounds," he stated.

With a mixture of liquor oxygen and gasoline used for fuel, the exploding gasses, which pushed the rocket forward by recoil action, shot from the nozzle at a speed "estimated to be over 5,000 feet per second."

"This gave for the mechanical horsepower of the jet 1,030 h. p. and the horsepower per pound of the combustion chamber, considered as a rocket motor, 206 h. p.," said Dr. Goddard.

This 206 horsepower per pound of "motor" weight was compared by the Smithsonian with "Manley's famous pioneer airplane engine of 1903 which weighed 2 1-5 pounds per horsepower."

Launched by remote control from an 80-foot tower at a distance of 1,000 feet, a 12-foot rocket has been shot by Dr. Goddard to a height of 7,500 feet—less than a mile and a half. He set this limit for experimental purposes, however, and now plans flights 30 miles up into the stratosphere, parachutes returning his rockets safely to earth.

Automatic Instruments

They will carry automatic instruments to record height, pressure, temperature and electrical changes, and collect samples of air in the outer atmosphere. Already his 9-inch thick rocket carries a small gyroscope—a "mechanical brain" that controls flight direction.

Future "rocket ships," according to the Smithsonian, "might even—without going beyond the legitimate bounds of imagination—carry human beings." But the present speed of 700 miles an hour would have to be increased 30 times to hurl them beyond the earth's gravitational field so they could reach the moon.

Builds Light Rocket

To increase speed, Dr. Goddard is trying to build a lighter rocket. Those used during the past two years have weighed from 58 to 85 pounds, it was revealed.

"Inasmuch as the rocket starts slowly," Dr. Goddard stated, "the first few hundred feet of flight reminded one of a fish swimming in a vertical direction."

Carrying on his experiments for the past 15 years, Dr. Goddard has also had the support of Clark University, the Smithsonian Institution and the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

NEED OF AIRPORT
New Castle, Pa.

New Castle News,
The Editor,
Dear Sir:

Why should New Castle have an airport? How did New York City become the largest and financially the greatest city in the world? The answer is, because of her location, both her land and ocean trade. She has built a great harbor so that ships from all over the world ply their trade there. Would New York City be the financial center of the western hemisphere if she had left her great water facilities on the busiest ocean in the world undeveloped? No.

New Castle is not located on an ocean of water, but she is located on the ocean of air. Is she going to leave her airport undeveloped and thus lose the great opportunity to grow in the aviation industry, and in air transport service? No.

We must not forget that everything is first a luxury then a necessity. The automobile, the concrete roads, as we all realize, are no longer luxuries. They are necessities of modern times. The airplane, as we shall prove, is already a necessity in many enterprises, and as a means of national defense.

New Castle will find it necessary to provide an adequate airport in the future just as surely as it was necessary to construct concrete highways? Why not do it now, since the major part of the construction cost has already been appropriated? A two-fold advantage could thus be gained. The unemployed could be placed at work and New Castle could acquire an adequate air base.

While we in the aviation industry admit that this industry is just in its infancy, we recognize that already it has gained a definite place annd function in many lines of service.

Do you realize that United States airlines fly more passengers, more miles, than the airlines of all other countries of the world combined? Last year 840,000 passengers were carried as compared with slightly over half a million in 1934.

Air mail in 1935, in spite of the lowered payments for conveying it, reached a poundage of 14,000,000 about double the 1934 figure.

Air express totaled 5,000,000 pounds as compared with 3,000,000 in 1934.

Analysis has shown that seventy five percent of the airline passengers use this form of transportation from choice rather than necessity. A word about accidents. They occur in all forms of transportation. The Federal Coordinator of Transportation recently released some figures in this regard showing the airlines to be two and a half times safer as a medium of transportation than the private automobile.

The result of recent developments in transport service has been such that the size of the United States of America has been reduced in hours of surface travel to the size of the State of Pennsylvania. Aviation thus makes it possible for everyone to benefit socially, politically, and economically, due to the rapid transmittal of people, mail and merchandise.

We must build for the future. Air transport service is too frequently thought of as a rapid mode of transportation only when necessity demands it, rather than a safe, reliable service.

We, in the aviation industry, are proud of the progress it has made. It, and indeed the airplane itself, are examples of American initiative and enterprise.

By providing an adequate airport, thus bringing air transportation and air transport service to New Castle, the people of New Castle and vicinity will recognize its value to progress, just as surely as they now recognize the value of railroads, and improved highways as vital factors in the economic life and progress of this community.

Yours,
FINDLEY C. WILSON.

Soviets Search For Poets' Kin

(International News Service)

MOSCOW, USSR, March 17—In a Unionwide search for descendants of Alexander S. Pushkin (they are being gathered for the centenary of the Russian poet's death to be commemorated next year,) a great grandson, Grigori Grigorievich was recently found in the Red Army, a student in the searchlight unit. He is specializing in sound detectors.

"I cannot write poetry," he told newspapermen, "but I can become chief of a searchlight station."

A grandson of the poet, Grigori Alexandrovich, sixty-seven, has also been located here. He fought for the Reds in the Civil War and is living on a pension.

Connecticut Senator To Be G.O.P. Keynoter At Westminster Convention

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent
New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 17.—Students of Westminster College will have the opportunity of hearing one of the most promising young Republican leaders of Connecticut on the evening of April 20 when Connecticut State Senator J. Kenneth Bradley addresses a mock convention to be held by the student body.

The mock convention will be conducted under the same rules as prevailed at the 1932 Republican National Convention in Chicago. Senator Bradley will be the "keynote" speaker.

Senator Bradley has attained the reputation of being one of the most promising of young Republicans in Connecticut. He is majority leader of the state Senate, and in this capacity succeeded during the last session of the assembly in preventing passage of several state laws looking to cooperation with various phases of the New Deal. He is a bitter enemy of New Deal policies.

Some few months ago, the Republican National Committee named Senator Bradley chairman of its Young Republican division. Transferring his headquarters to Washington, Bradley immediately commenced a whirlwind campaign in all parts of the nation to unite young Republicans in a battle against re-election of President Roosevelt. He was so successful in winning over hostile elements of young Republican progressive organizations in the West that he was elected chairman of the Young Republican National Federation.

AROUND CITY HALL

Councilman J. M. Rice and Sewage Works Superintendent Frank Nugent will attend the convention of the sewage works superintendents and operators at State College March 30, according to councilmanic action. Councilman Russell M. Alexander yesterday told colleagues that in his opinion the city should be represented. He said that Frank Nugent should be sent as the delegate from New Castle. Councilman James Fink said that inasmuch as the operations at the sewage plant and the health department interlink, the health bureau also should be represented. It was decided to send Rice and Nugent to the convention, where they will, no doubt, learn considerable.

It now comes to light that John F. Haven, chief of police, is not the only officer who has utilized a disguise to effect a capture, and it may come to pass that the local department will go in heavily to effect captures through old clothing and whiskers. According to a story current around headquarters, one of the officers a few nights ago was disguised so thoroughly that he stood alongside some persons who knew him quite intimately in a bluecoat or "civvies", but in his disguise was a "stranger" to them. The result was a capture which no doubt will give cause to those who wink at the law to be wary and the watchword may be: "Who goes there; friend or foe?"

During councilmanic meeting Monday at the City building colleagues ratified the opinion of Mayor Charles E. McGrath in having named Attorney John S. Powers to assist the district attorney, Mont Ailey, prosecute four young men who were accused by Chief of Poliice John F. Haven of assault with intent to rob him when he feigned drunkenness as a bait to attract the persons whom were alleged to have been committing South Side hold-ups.

Mayor Charles E. McGrath has explained that as soon as the federal government starts wheels whirling in the construction of an airport the land required for the project will be secured and paid for. The price per acre asked has not yet been made public. The land will be paid for according to the price asked in options which the city has taken out. However, no land will be bought until the city is assured that the federal government means business and that unlike WPA projects, will not be abandoned when half completed. One of the underlying reasons for city council's opinion that an airport should be built is the report that the airport project would fit in nicely with a national defense scheme, and second, because the government will spend $162,000 if the city and county spend about $21,000, a portion of the latter being charged up for engineering services which will be provided by the city and county.

Since his induction into office as mayor, Charles E. McGrath has set himself straight with the public on two police questions; first, if anyone battles in a public highway he will be fined, and second, he has levied fines in the amount that he believes can be paid. The mayor, according to his action so far, prefers receiving a fine for the city rather than levying an exorbitant fine and have the prisoner go to jail at the expense of the taxpayers.

When the tin can brigade begins collecting tin cans they will have a job. Added to cans in which there was food, now are the cans in which there was beer, ale or 'arf and 'arf. According to Howard Phillips, in charge of the collection of garbage and tin cans, the latter have added woes to his department. There is scarcely a cellar or yard in the city which does not contain its supply of empty tin cans and the people are awaiting the arrival of the trucks. The collection of tin cans will come after garbage has been removed. As often stated, the city removes the tin cans as a courtesy.

150,000 Wolves Menace In Russia

(International News Service)

MOSCOW, March 17.—Wolves are a menace in Russia, more than 150,000 stalking the steppes, terrorizing collective farmers, stealing sheep and other domestic animals, declares Socialist Agriculture (the organ of the Commissariat of Agriculture) today in an editorial in which it calls on Soviet hunters to wipe them out.

The bounty on wolves must be raised, says the paper, and points out that the present premium on 50 rubles a head is too low and no inducement to hunters.

In Kazakstan, according to the editorial, where there are tens of thousands of wolves, the government has set aside less than 90,000 rubles for bounties. In the Ukraine, where wolves are a rarity, a million and a half rubles languishes in the bank for lack of claimants.

Salting peanuts in the shell is done quite extensively in the tropics. The peanuts are boiled in a salt liquid and then allowed to dry, after which they are roasted. No special equipment is required for this process.

The expression "pin money" originally came from the allowance which a husband gave his wife to purchase pins. At one time pins were so expensive that only the wealthy could afford them.

It is said that anthracite was sent from near Sunbury, Pa., to Carlisle, Pa., and used by soldiers stationed there during the Revolutionary war, but this is not authentic.

Courage Of Women Praised By Earle

Governor Gives Hearty Endorsement To National Business Women's Week

Governor George Earle has made the following statement on the Ninth Annual Business Women's Week which is now being observed:

"The Ninth Annual Business Women's Week with "Effective Democracy" as the theme, is being observed by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs throughout the country this week of March 15 to 21 inclusive. The most hearty endorsement is given to this observance.

"The 60,000 women representing 1490 federated clubs who will participate in the activities of this week, constitute a group which has made a distinct contribution to the life of our country, especially during the years of economic crisis. In fact our emergence from the crisis is due in large part to the courage and foresight of women. Always and everywhere they have carried their share of the burden without faltering. Their eyes have always turned upward in the darkest hours. In short, they have been an inspiration to their associates in the home and business world. It is accordingly fitting, therefore, that Pennsylvania should recognize the crucial part played by women in the commercial, professional, and civic affairs of the State."

NEW CASTLE PLAYS ST. MARYS TONIGHT

SCHOOLBOY FIVES READY TO START P.I.A.A. TOURNEY

New Castle High "Red Hurricanes" Go To Pittsburgh For Fifth Time Tonight; Bridenbaugh Announces Team In Best Of Condition; New Castle-St. Marys Play First Game Of Double-Bill At 7:30 P. M.; First Trip To Pittsburgh For "Mountaineers"; Winner Will Play Winner Of Sharon-Erie Strong Vincent Game.

New Castle High School "Red Hurricane" basketball team, W. P. I. A. L. or District 7 champions will play St. Marys High, District 9, champions tonight at the Pitt Stadium floor Pittsburgh, in the first game of the annual P. I. A. A. elimination tourney for the state championship. The New Castle-St. Marys game starts at 7:30 p. m.

The winner of the game tonight will meet the winner of the Sharon-Erie Strong Vincent game which is being played at Greenville, Pa., tonight. New Castle won the right to represent the district last Saturday night by trouncing a Findley Class B high school team 39 to 24. St. Marys upset Brookville High last Friday at DuBois 31 to 29 to earn the right to represent District 9.

Will Take Fight.

The fighting sons of Pa Newc left the city late this afternoon for the Pitt stadium determined to play the kind of game that has made them famous in the past few weeks. In St. Marys high, the New Castle boys will meet a team of fighting "Mountaineers", at Pittsburgh for the first time, and eager to make a good showing. It is figured that there is not more than two or three points difference in the two teams tonight.

With "Dal" Mumford recovered from his severe cold and with Eddie "Bus" Strasbaugh back in condition, Coach Phil Bridenbaugh will present his strongest lineup to the St. Marys delegation. Mumford and Carik will probably start at the forwards, with Strasbaugh at center and Covelli and Adams at the guards. Mumford did not play against Findley and has had a good rest.

Watch Pistner.

St. Marys high will show a forward by the name of Pistner who is regarded as a second Charley Hyatt in the St. Marys sector. This Pistner chap scored 16 points against Brookville high, and has hopes of repeating tonight against New Castle. Squires, the big center, is really the key man on the team. He is a good "feeder" for Pistner and Parsons.

It will take 32 minutes of the finest kind of basketball on the part of the local sons to bring home the bacon. Granting that Crafton, Rankin and Latrobe were tough picking, this St. Marys team will be every bit as tough and maybe more so. It will take coordination on the part of every man on the New Castle team to win the game. Individual glory should be forgotten in a game of this nature. Remember what happened to Rankin high? One man cannot win a ball game, no matter how good he is.

Keep Plugging Away.

If the New Castle boys get in there and play the kind of a game that they are capable of playing, St. Marys is going to acquire a very bad taste for "Hurircanes". St. Marys must be good or else it would not be up there tonight fighting for the state championship.

New Castle has shown enough fight and courage in the other tourney games to warrant a good game tonight. The boys will have to keep plugging away. No lead is safe in basketball. Whether or not New Castle is good enough to merit state consideration this year will be determined tonight. Whether or not the W. P. I. A. L. champions were jusy "lucky" will be seen tonight. It's up to the Bridenbaughmen to prove to the fans and press tonight that they do deserve the ranking that they have acquired through the W. P. I. A. L. series of eliminations.

This will be the first New Castle-St. Marys meeting on record and so let's get out and show the boys from the northern part of the state that they play better basketball here in the western end of the state.

Probable Lineups.

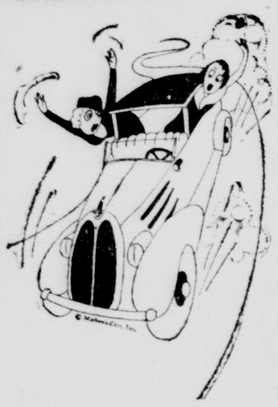

The second half of he double bill tonight will find Allegheny-Franklin Borough tangling. Allegheny won district 8 championship and Franklin Borough down in Cambria county won district 6.

Following are the probable lineups tonight:

New Castle		St. Marys
Mumford or Nocera	F	Pistner
Carik or Dukin	F	Parsons
Strasbaugh	C	Squires
Covelli	G	Ritter
Adams	G	Bauers

Kirppus Takes 33 To 24 Victory, First Falcon Defeat Of Year By Local Team

The strong Kirppus team composed of former high school and college stars handed the Polish Falcons a 33 to 24 setback at the Falcon floor for the first time this year that the Kolodjieskimen have tasted defeat at the hands of a New Castle team.

The Falcons were crippled by the absence of "Slim" Augustyn, the star center, but Kowlek at center, played a fine game and got three points. The score at the half favored the Kirppus 22 to 7. Russ Kawa was held to a lone field goal in the first half and four in the final half for a total of 11 points. Joe Kelly, late of Slippery Rock Teachers College, was high point man with 14 points. Francis "Slim" Wainio, former Pitt star, had six points.

Carnegie Tech Takes Eastern Conference Championship In Playoff Game

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 17.—A last-half rally which brought them from behind to defeat the Pitt Panthers by a score of 32-27 today gave the Carnegie Tech Tartans the Eastern Intercollegiate Basket Ball conference title which has been held by Pitt for the past four years.

Although Cy Fesler, Tech guard, had the safety assuring points for the Tartans in the final few minutes it was Lou Jagnow, entering the game midway in the first period, who guided his teammates to the conference crown

Cramer High In N. C. Rifle Shoot

Cramer was high man with 194 out of a possible 200 in the semi-weekly shoot of the New Castle Rifle club last night at the Cathedral range. Second high was held by Leo Hill with 190, and Houck with 190.

Tonight the New Castle club will go to the Nonpariel rifle range in the West Side garage for an inter-club shoot. The shoot will start at 7:30 o'clock.

The results of the shoot held last night at the Cathedral: Cramer 194, Leo Hill 190, Houck 190, Pugh 189, R. Moore 187, Dean 185, H. Allen 185, Reynolds 184, Giddings 182, D. Hill 182, Black 181, Patterson 181, McKeown 179, J. Allen 178, Martin 175, Eleanor Crawford 171, McBride 165, Lutes 130.

Tech Hopes That Steffen Will Sign

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 17.—Carnegie Tech students and alumni were hopeful today that Judge Walter P. Steffen, of Chicago, former head coach of the Tartans, would return here on Thursday and sign up again to take over the Plaid squad.

Judge Stefen made a flying visit here on Saturday but a Sunday conference with the school officials brought no decision on terms or conditions.

Connie Mack Starts Building New Team

Athletics This Year Will Be Bunch Of Rookies, Is Indication

Very Few Veterans On Team, But Connie Mack Is Not Discouraged

By DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor

FORT MYERS Fla., March 17.—Mr. Connie Mack and the writer had quite a time for themselves today. We were discussing the odd lots and job lots of the ball team Mr. Mack had left himself in the name of the Philadelphia Athletics and the tete-a-tete was a little labored, if not downright spasmodic and inane.

The only thing he seemed positive about was the holdout of Frank Higgins, the third baseman who, it appears, now has Mr. Mack's unabridge permission to remain in the state of Texas for the rest of his ungrateful life.

Stars Depart

"I've already offered him $2.500 more than I should have," said the man with a note of wistful regret, understandable in one who has sold Foxx, McNair, Cramer, Cochrane, Simmons, Grove, Walberg, Bishop, etc., etc., for anywhere up to $750,000 in the last several years.

That particular performance has left Mr. Mack with a franchise and a certain touch of defiant bravado, not wholly in keeping with the antics of those pitiful caricatures who remain. I had just looked upon the caricatures and hurriedly averted my gaze. They are the current scandal of the Florida fruit juice circuit.

"Now," the man's monotone was running on, tonelessly. "If I only get some pitching——."

I wanted to know about the young man who had been playing shortstop.

"Shortstop?" he had the surprised air of one who is unexpectedly accused of having a young man playing shortstop.

"Shortstop, yes. Peerson, isn't it? Yes, I believe so. I also have Newsome, who was with the club last year. Worthy young men. Yes, very worthy. Of course, it all goes back to my pitching."

Lots Of Rookies

It further developed that the man on first base was Oglesby, from the coast league, and the man on second was Yarter, from the Texas league. Very worthy young men. They don't want a raise in salary.

Not in camp at the moment was Rabbit Warstler, the second baseman who had been holding out.

"A good, earnest player," said Mr. Mack, reflectively. "He is often satisfactory, yet do you know you always keep thinking that you ought to have somebody else playing the position?"

He shook his head over the uncertainties of modern life upon the ball field. The man on third, it developed, was Peters, who came from somewhere or other and might or might not soon go hence. That was among the number of things Mr. Mack did not seem to know at the time.

Three Catchers

The outfield, by some mischance, is strictly major league with Lou Finney, Bob Johnson, the noble Redman; and Wally Moses still about. About where? Offhand, I'd say about crazy. The catchers are Charley Berry; the kid from the seminary, Hayes; and the young man, Savino, whose first name Mr. Mack did not know when he made the Foxx deal last winter. I wonder if he has found out yet.

I pointed out that his pitchers, Wilshere, Benton, etc., had looked from time to time as though they were going to come on. They had pitched some extraordinarily fine games.

Infield Is Young

"That's it," he said, with sudden animation. "My pitching is bad. Perhaps it is too much to hope that it will get better. The infield is young and willing. With its enthusiasm, it might overcome technical faults. Enthusiasm is the thing. Of what use were my stars last year? They stopped on me.

"I had to sell them; that is, all except Higgins. Do you know, he must be a sport writers' ball player? Nobody ever offered to buy him. They tell me that he intends to stay where he is. I hope I can count on it. I'll save some money. Why, if we get any kind of pitching——."

A very old and very tired man stood up suddenly and offered his hand. He nodded, smiled so briefly that it was barely discernable and went into the dining room to eat alone. The interview was over.

Pulaskis Will Play Tonight

The K. Pulaski five of New Castle will play the Pulaski team of Farrell, Pa., tonight at the Pulaski hall. The K. Pulaski Reserves of New Castle will meet the Pulaski Reserves of Farrell in the preliminary game. The first game will start at 7:30 o'clock.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Penn State's Nittany Lion has a right to roar these days, the boxing and wrestling teams having captured championships. The amateur boxers won the Eastern Intercollegiate Boxing Association crown and the matmen took the Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association title, Saturday night. The battlers scored at State College and the grapplers clutched their title at Princeton.

Probabilities are that Pick Glitch, the booking agent for the West Side Firemen, is lying awake these nights trying to figure out "Who Will Be Who" in baseball this spring and summer. The Firemen had a great season last year and intend to have equally as good a season this year. The Firemen accomplished their success last year with team work and harmony. Those essentials are difficult to beat.

So far no one has been apparently able to find out what happened to the beaver that was building a dam in the vicinity of the Second Dam. The season for beaver is now in. . . . Lawrence County Sportsmen Association have requested the fish commission to send some trout for stocking to Lawrence county. The sportsmen have stated that no trout were sent here this winter.

Jack Trammel, of Youngstown, who battered Tony Cancela, of the Sunny South recently, has been matched to fight Hans Birkie, the German, in the next show at Youngstown. O'er Youngstown-way they hold great hopes of the six feet four-inch colored lad getting somewhere in the fistic world. He stood head and shoulders above Cancela and his reach was inches longer. Tony was not a fair opponent to test Trammel.

Jock McAvoy's right hand was not fractured during his losing bout with John Henry Lewis, world's light-heavyweight champion, according to Xray photographs. The British scrapper had his trusty right photographed yesterday and the pictures showed no break. Jock will sail Wednesday for England, and on April 23 will try to wrest the heavyweight title of Great Britain from Jack Peterson.

Frank Nordell of the New York Athletic club last night at New York outran Glenn Cunningham and Hoe Mangin in a spectacular 1,000-meter race. He negotiated the distance in four minutes and 6.8 seconds. The former New York U. star, always at his best on flat boards, breezed by his more famous rivals at the start of the fourth lap of the nine-lap run and led 30 yards at the seventh lap.

Merle Means of the Shelby Social club, Ellwood City, acted as Ellwood's representative at the Lawrence county baseball league meeting last night. He said the Shelby proposes to put a fast team in the race. Means also stated that the club is getting ready to stage a good amateur boxing show March 30. Things are humming around the club.

LeRoy Haynes provided the pugilistic box with a surprise package in the form of a three-round knockout over Primo Carnera at Philadelphia last night. Carnera was down twice, and to save the Man Mountain from further punishment the referee stopped the bout. The giant Italian was stopped in the midst of a comeback which he planned would eventually lead to a fight with James J. Braddock, champion, who beat Maxie Baer, dethroner of Carnera.

Shenango Teachers Lose To All Stars

Alumni Passers Hand Varsity Quintet Surprise 35-17 Trimming Monday Night

Monday night a crowd that filled the Shenango auditorium witnessed an unusual basketball attraction. The proceeds went into the coffers of the Shenango Athletic association.

The Alumni five, led by Van Eman and Hordig, handed the Shenango Varsity passers a 35-17 trimming. At the half the Shenango Alumni held a commanding 15-5 lead.

The feature attraction brought together the Shenango Faculty and the Class League All-Stars. After battling for four quarters, the fatigued pedagogues were trailing by a 29-25 count. The contest was filled with action and thrills. Shaftic and Hennon walked away with the honors for the All Stars, while Nocera and "Nimble" Johnston were the best bets for the instructors.

Golf Name Contest Brought To Close

Committee Will Name Judges To Make Final Choice Of Municipal Course Name

At a meeting of the Golf Advisory Committee of the New Castle Municipal Course, held last evening in the city building, the golf name contest, which has been under way for the past two weeks was officially brought to a close.

The committee will name the judges to make a final choice in the contest within the next few days, Chairman Ed. Raney stated today, and they are expected to complete the task of selecting a name by next week.

Lawrence Loop Managers Meet

Eight And Possibly More Teams Will Comprise 1936 League

MANAGERS INCREASE COST OF FRANCHISE

It may sound somewhat ludicrous to become rapturous over baseball when several inches of snow and sleet cover the ground but managers of Lawrence county baseball circuit teams today have that feeling following their first get-together to discuss baseball plans for 1936. They met last night at the Sport Goods Store.

Managers indicated that the 1936 loop would consist of not less than eight teams and possibly ten. All of them agreed that the franchise should cost $50.00, on which a deposit should be placed at the March 30 meeting when various questions would be taken up after new officers have been named. One of the decisions already reached will provide Sunday ball again.

Teams Represented

The managers or representatives who signified their intention of holding a franchise follows:

Patsy Conti, Hillsville.
Pete Tepsick, Wampum.
Alec Black, A. S. & T. P., 1935 league champions.
Harry Myers, Carbon.
Nick Cangie, Mahoning.
Tony Onicka, West Pittsburg.
Jim Martin, Bessemer.
Merle Means, Ellwood City.
Gordon Morgan, Colonial A. C.

Ellwood City started in the circuit last season but things went awry at Ellwood City and they left the loop. However, with the unqualified backing of the Shelby Social club, things may be lots different this season. Castlewood also fell by the roadside in 1935.

Ryantown was not represented last night. Colonial A. C., a North Hill team, evinced a desire to join in the organization and will make a definite decision March 29. Mr. Morgan represented the players although he said he was not the manager.

Sunday Baseball

The poll on Sunday baseball resulted in the motion being carried. Games also will be played every Wednesday and Saturday. Teams which cannot play Sunday games on their home grounds will be assigned dates away from home. Should the date be considered a "home game" the team on the travel will collect half of the receipts. Hillsville will play games assigned to them for Saturday on Friday evenings.

It was decided that twilight games would start at 6 p. m., Wednesday tilts at 3 p. m., and Saturday contests at 3:30 p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

All persons who believe they have the qualifications to umpire baseball have been invited to send their names, addresses and telephone numbers to Secretary, Lawrence County Baseball League, in care of the Sport Goods Store. The prospective umpires can personally submit their names to Vice President W. G. Andrews at the store, it was stated.

J. Moore High In Nonpariel Shoot

J. Moore was high man with 192 in the semi-weekly shoot of the Nonpariel club at the west side range. Second high was held by Karl Rohrer witn 190 and by Rod Davis with 190.

Tonight the Nonpariel club will have an inter-club shoot with the New Castle Rifle club at the Nonpariel range. The shoot will start at 7:30 o'clock.

The results of the last shoot held by the Nonpariel club—Jesse Moore 192, Rohrer 190, Rod Davis 190, Curtis 185, Cox 184, Barber 183, Shaw 180, Adams 175, Piter 174, Douglas 172, Walsh 171, Phipps 167, Boyd 161, Wilson 154 Chambers 150 Essinger 150.

On January 1, 1917, the estimated number of men under arms in Austria-Hungary was 3,000,000; in Germany 7,000,000.

Bessemer High Ends Great Floor Season, Capture Two Titles

Lawrence County Championship And Section 22 Title To Bessemer

Another Triumph For Coach J. K. Fredericks, Poushey High Scorer

Bessemer high school, winners of the 1936 Lawrence county class B and W.P.I.A.L. section 22 championships, closed one of its most successful basketball seasons in recent years with a record of 14 victories and three defeats. The team is coached by J. K. Fredericks, who has turned out many championship teams.

The season started rather badly. After defeating the Alumni in a warm up game, Bessemer lost the succeeding games to East Brook and Wampum. With every game the important game, Bessemer played steady ball to run a winning streak of 11 games, being stopped by Monaca in the W. P. I. A. L. elimination tourney.

Stopped Lowellville.

The highlights of the season were the Lowellville and the second Mt. Jackson and Shenango games. Lowellville was defeated for the first time in six years as a result of an offensive drive that netted 12 points in the final minutes of play. After trailing 15-2 at the end of the first quarter in the Mt. Jackson game, Bessemer came back to win 27-22. The Shenango game at Bessemer, the bargain game for the fans, was a terrific battle all the way. Leading 14-5 at the first quarter, Shenango finally succumbed in the third overtime period 30-28.

The team was built around Marshall and Poushey, the returning lettermen. Poushey, Marshall, Kursel, Calderaro, Young, Olson and Grimes were in action the most of the games. Of these seven only Calderaro will return for duty next season.

Good Ball Handlers.

The team was small in comparison to the squads of other years, but were the best ball handlers, best shots and fastest to carry the school colors in some time. The individual scoring was very nearly even.

Marshall and Poushey did most of the ball handling in the front court, while the ball manipulation in close quarters fell to Calderaro. All three did a remarkably fine job. Bessemer stayed in the championship race largely through the improvement of Kursel. Kursel developed into the finest offensive rebound man that has graced the Bessemer court since the days of Stanish and Puromaki. Olson and Young played fine ball. Grimes, while playing less than the others, was often the margin between victory and defeat when important substitutions were necessary.

Seven Get Letters.

Letter awards were earned by Marshall, Poushey, Young, Kursel, Olson, Grimes and Calderaro. Other players on the squad were R. DeArment, Anderson, Germanovich, Medure, H. DeArment, Zornich, M. Calderaro, Hribar, Mediate Phillips, Moses, W. Kursel, Mack, Hardesty and Pelto.

Sharon-Erie Play Tonight

District 10 championship will be decided tonight at the Thiel college floor at Greenville, when Sharon high, Mercer county champs, tangle with Erie Strong Vincent high. The winner will play the winner of the New Castle-St. Marys game on March 21.

Erie Strong Vincent won the right to meet Sharon by defeating Erie East high for the Erie city championship. Sharon upset Oil City and Farrell to gain the right to meet Erie.

Covelli Honored On Tourney Team

Domenick "Jap" Covelli, star New Castle guard, was the only New Castle player picked on the all-W. P. I. A. L. tourney first or second team by Julius Levin. Covelli was paired with Wylie "Soupy" Campbell at guard on the first team. The first team will get gold medals.

The remainder of the first team had "Howdy" Lyons of Crafton at forward, Drugmand of Findley at the other forward, and Anthony of Glasport at center. Levin picked two class B stars to rank with the class A luminaries.

DiCARLOS WIN GAME

DiCarlos basketball team handed the Celtics of New Castle a 23 to 17 defeat. The stars of the game were L. Colella, E. Colella, Ferrari for the winners, and Robertson and Blair for the losers.

Tifereth Israel Methodists Are Tied For Lead

Second-Half Of Church A League Tied Up, St. Pauls Score Big Upset

St. Paul's Lutherans' big upset of the strong First Presbyterian church team last night, 32 to 26, necessitated a playoff game for the Church A league championship of the second half between the First Methodists and Tifereth Israels. Had the Presbyterians won the game it would have been a three-way tie.

The First M. E. boys took care of the Third U. P. team in good shape, 36 to 16, to tie the Tifereths, with three victories and one defeat apiece for the second half of the league. Cloak, McIvor and Spencer brought victory to the Methodists.

In the third game on the bill-of-fare the Tifereth Israel team lost to the former Tifereth Israel stars, 33 to 24, with Eph Solomon the big point man with 12 points.

J. Binder, H. Snyder and Grief were the outstanding stars of the St. Pauls' victory over the First Presbyterians.

The Tifereth Israels and First M. E. will play off for the second half title, to determine which team shall meet the St. Pauls Lutherans for the Church A league championship.

Colonial A. C. To Meet Wednesday

Members of the Colonial A. C. baseball team will gather at the home of Jack McCann at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening for an important meeting, it was announced today.

Election of officers will be held. The coming baseball season will be discussed and plans made. The following are asked to attend the meeting: Jess McCann, Jack McCann, Reynolds, Sergeant, D. Hartman, Dom Morgan, L. Frank, Swisher, Hoskins, Rosser Book Shoaf Campbell, R. Fabian, Bill Mitchell, Maxwell and Curley. The Colonial A. C. plans to enter the Lawrence county league this year.

The rite of baptism by sprinkling or pouring is supposed to have originated either in the second or the third century and is alluded to in the writing of Cyprian.

Al Gainer Hands Barry Defeat In Pittsburgh Ring

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Mar. 17.—Al Gainer, New Haven colored ringman, today added another victory to his string following a technical knockout awarded him over Red Barry of Washington, Pa., in the fifth round of their uneven fight here last night.

The best fight of the evening, according to ringside fans, was the second bout on the card in which Billy Conn of Pittsburgh won a unanimous decision over Steve Nickleash of Oil City in six rounds.

Three Games At "Y" Wednesday

Three basketball games will be played at the Y. M. C. A. floor Wednesday night. The first game will start at 8 o'clock.

The St. Paul's team of the Church A League will play the Epworth M. E. team of the Church AA League in the first battle. The second game will find the First Presbyterians meeting the Butler "Y" team at 8:45 o'clock.

The third game will find the Tin Mill Five meeting the Castletons.

Leroy Haynes Stops Carnera

Coast Negro Scores Sensational Knockout Of Carnera In Three Rounds

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. Mar. 17.—Primo Carnera, former heavyweight champion, emitted vague mumblings today about "going back to Italy," while Leroy Haynes, Los Angeles negro, boldly dared Joe Louis to get into a ring with him.

Haynes sprung a double A upset and leaped plumb into the centre of the heavyweight picture by knocking out Carnera in less than three rounds before a 10,000 crowd at the arena here last night. It took Louis six rounds of hard fighting to stop the big Italian and Max Baer 11 rounds on the night he won the world's title.

"Get me Louis, that's all I ask," Haynes, jubilant over his victory, said today. "I'm one guy who won't be afraid of him and one guy he won't lick."

Weight Advantage

Haynes, who weighed 197½ pounds, 67½ pounds less than his giant foeman, went after Carnera at the opening bell, but Primo succeeded in holding him off fairly well with a long left in the first round.

With the start of the second, however, Haynes began bobbing under the left and scoring with paralyzing rights to the body and jaw. As the round neared its end, Haynes suddenly tore loose and swarmed all over the bewildered Carnera. Down went Primo in the negro's corner. He arose at the count of two, but ran into another furious volley of punches swung from all angles. He dropped again, but halted his fall by grabbing the ropes. He pulled himself erect at the bell, but the roar of the crowd drowned out the sound of the gong and Haynes contiuned punching for several more seconds.

Undecided Upon Site For Bout

Mike Jacobs Cannot Make Up Mind Where To Stage Schmeling-Louis Go

By TONY PUGLIESE
International News Service
Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—Take it straight from Uncle Mike Jacobs, Twentieth Century Sporting Club promoter—"The Max Schmeling-Joe Louis heavyweight bout, if held in Philadelphia, will not be run during the week of June 23, while the Democratic National Convention is in progress."

Although declaring no selection of a site for the bout has been made, Mike today said he would confer with Mayor S. Davis Wilson in Philadelphia on Thursday regarding "an attractive offer to stage the Schmeling-Louis contest in the Sesqui-Centennial Stadium, rent free."

Many Offers

"Many offers are under consideration at present," Jacobs said, "but selection of the site is still to be made."

Speaking of his aversion to holding the fight at the time of the convention, Jacobs declared:

"Convention crowds are not fight enthusiasts. They (delegates and political master minds) don't lay it on the line for any bout. For that matter take the world series and Kentucky derby fans. Did you ever see them flock to a fight held in connection with those events? They just don't go to fights while busy with other interests."

Lincolns Face Two Tough Foes

Lincoln basketball team will have to play stellar ball in order to cop victories No. 33 and 34, this week.

Wednesday night the South Side quintet will lineup against the All Stars, composed of Kelly, Brown, Ostrosky, Hahn. Friday night the First Presbyterian team, leader in the Y. M. C. A. Church League, will endeavor to stop the championship rush the Lincolns.

Gabby DeCaprio, an outstanding player on the Lincoln five, who was injured last week, is improving. He may not play in the two games.

KOPPEL

Mrs. L. A. Gasser and Mrs. A. G. Wetzel, Second avenue, attended a meeting of their card club in Beaver Falls Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Orris Ford and son Charles visited friends in Wampum Friday evening.

Mrs. H. Whittmer, Mrs. Phil Crangi, Mrs. A. Bruner and Miss Christine Whittmer spent Thursday evening in Beaver Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Linzey and children, of Warren, O., visited over the week-end with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Linzey, of the New Castle road.

MILK BOTTLE HINT

Save cardboard caps from milk bottles, wash them thoroughly, and in the winter put them on the milk bottle when you set it out at night. If there is snow during the night the ticket or money in the bottle is not hidden by snow, and the milkman can see at a glance just what is wanted.

The word albino is a term that was first applied by the Portuguese to the white negroes of West Africa.

"Dad's Night" Held By American Legion

Interesting Program Is Carried Out In Honor Of Dads On Monday Night

ELLWOOD CITY, March 17.—"Dad's Night" was observed by the local J. Wilbur Randolph Post of the American Legion Monday evening in their rooms on Sixth street. Each member of the post brought his dad or an adopted dad.

The lights were dimmed for the opening ceremonies and a spotlight was turned on the American Flag flying in the breeze. The assemblage sang "America" under the direction of Robert Taylor.

The Burgess and members of the Borough Council were special guests on this occasion and gave fitting remarks. Interesting talks were given by Burgess Russell T. Sitler, President of Council A. J. Howell, and District Commander Caddy Moulter of New Brighton.

It was announced that the 26th district stood ninth in the state membership; the western part was second in the drive; and the state of Pennsylvania was second in the country. Work, on the banquet for the National Commander Ray Murphy in New Castle in the near future, is progressing it was revealed.

The feature of the evening was an address by the Rev. E. G. Aubrey, pastor of the local First Christian church, who spoke on "The Best Things of Life." The speaker told of the necessity of the glow of health and the joy of craftsmanship. He gave the requisites for a happy life which included knowledge, sense of beauty, friendship, spirit of adventure, and religion.

Remarks were then made by the Dads present. A fish fry followed the program. The entire evening was a decided success.

On Friday the county committee will meet at Aliquippa. It was announced that all unemployed veterans not on relief are requested to register at the state employment office by April 6.

Coach Schill Will Address Banquet Group

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 17.—Coach Denny Schill, of the local high school, will be the guest speaker at the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church on Friday evening when members of the Young People's Society hold their annual banquet and business meeting.

The banquet will be served at 6:30 by members of the Happy Hour class and is for all young people of the church of the age fourteen and up.

An election of officers to serve for one year will be held during the evening. Arrangements for the affair are in charge of George Brown for the program and Miss Frances Worrell for the banquet.

Martha Cosby Class Elects Officers

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 17. — Martha Cosby class of the U. P. church held its regular meeting last night at the home of Mrs. Robert Dambach on Franklin avenue. There was a good attendance present.

Mrs. Dambach was in charge of the devotions and Mrs. Edw. Butler presided at the business meeting at which the annual election of officers took place. It resulted with all the old officers being re-elected as follows: President, Mrs. Marie Butler; vice president, Miss Agnes Shira; secretary, Mrs. Robert Dambach; treasurer, Janet Stroup.

After transacting a few routine matters a delightful social time was enjoyed. Refreshments were served later. The next meeting of the class will be held on April 20 at the home of Miss Janet Stroup on Franklin avenue.

L. R. L. Members Meet On Monday

Auto Wrecked On Beaver Falls Road

Car Driven By Mrs. Stanley Kothe Of Butler Is Wrecked In Accident

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 17. — Five people escaped serious injury yesterday afternoon when a car driven by Miss Minnie Balter of Freedom crashed into that of Mrs. Stanley Kothe of Butler. The latter car was badly wrecked.

Mrs. Kothe had as passengers in the car, her small son, Stanley, Jr., and mother, Mrs. Rae Chambers, of this city. There was a woman passenger in the car of Miss Balter. All escaped serious injury although Mrs. Kothe with her son and mother were considerably shaken up and are suffering from shock.

According to an investigation conducted by Highway Patrolman A. P. Vota of the Beaver Falls station, Miss Balter lost control of her car when it went into a skid near Bennet's run on the Ellwood-Beaver Falls road. It turned completely around and crashed into the car of Mrs. Kothe, who at the time had the two right wheels off the highway and was traveling very slowly. Highway Patrolman Vota arrived shortly after and conducted an investigation and then made the highway safe for traffic.

William Bhame Called By Death

ELLWOOD CITY, Mar. 17.—William Bhame, aged 70, passed away at 6:30 Sunday evening at his home in Lancaster township, following a brief illness.

Mr. Bhame was a farmer and had resided his entire life-time in that township. He was well known and most respected throughout this district.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Caroline Schweinegruber Bhame; two daughters, Mrs. Elmer Sahli, of Allison Park, and Mrs. William Hess, of Lancaster township; one son, Clarence, of Lancaster township, and one sister, Mrs. Samuel Barclay, of Middle Lancaster.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 from the St. Peter's Reformed church of Middle Lancaster, with the pastor, Rev. James Gilbert, officiating. Interment will be made in the church cemetery.

KING'S CORONATION IS GUESSING GAME

(International News Service)

LONDON—They have a new game locally.

It is that of trying to guess the date of King Edward VIIIth's coronation in historic Westminster Abbey.

Nothing will be decided officially for several months, but the best guess and the one that finds most favor is that the coronation ceremony will be held June 20 next year, which happens to be the centenary of the accession of Queen Victoria, Edward's great grandmother.

While being tremendously popular from the sentimental point of view, the date would have the added attraction of having a 50-50 change of good weather.

LEAD FACE POWDER BANNED IN JAPAN

(International News Service)

TOKIO—After enjoying popularity for many years, the sale of face powder containing lead has been banned in Japan on the ground that it is harmful.

The powder has been specially popular among actors and actresses and was considered to give a better appearance than powders made from other materials.

But now, as a result of scientific progress, better powders of a harmless nature can be bought, and the authorities have decided to protect the public from "lead" powders. There are now 22 face powder manufacturing plants in Osaka alone. They produce powders under more than 50 brands.

Stock Market Strong Today

Gains Of More Than Two Points Recorded In Some Of Leading Stocks

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service Financial Writer.

NEW YORK, Mar. 17.—The stock market scored gains running to more than two points in leading issues today in response to reports Germany would attend the London parley on the Locarno treaty.

The list displayed a strong tone from the opening, steels, motors, utilities and rails leading the market into higher ground.

U. S. Steel jumped two points to above 65. Bethlehem and Republic gained more than a point. Chrysler was whirled upwards about two points and General Motors more than one.

American Power & Light and Electric Power & Light each gained about a point to set new 1935-36 peaks.

Rails were improved. Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Southern Pacific showed advances of about a point each.

Standard Oil of N. J. continued its steady upward progress, gaining more than a point to above 67. United Air Lines moved into new high ground on a fractional advance.

Bolstered by the sharp improvement in earnings reported for 1935, International Nickel spurted 1½ points to 50 in the corners before meeting profit taking. American Smelting jumped nearly two points. Sugars lagged.

IT WILL BE NO. 3 FOR CHARLIE

Approaching marriage of Charlie Chaplin, screen comedian, and Paulette Goddard, whom he tutored to become his leading woman, will be Charlie's third marital venture. Charlie's first wife was Mildred Harris, and his second, Lita Grey Chaplin. Engagement of Charlie and Miss Goddard was announced at Shanghai, China, where the couple, accompanied by Miss Goddard's mother, stopped on a world tour.

Picturesque Towns of the Rhineland Now Occupied by German Troops.

These views show some of the picturesque towns in the Rhineland now occupied by German troops in violation of the Versailles and Locarno treaties. Great crowds gathered throughout the Rhineland to welcome the arrival of armed forces of Nazi Germany which caused widespread alarm throughout Europe.

Successor to Huey

Allen J. Ellender

This is a new photo of Allen J. Ellender, winner of the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator from Louisiana to succeed the late Senator Huey P. Long. The nomination is tantamount to election and Ellender will take office in January, 1937. In the meantime Mrs. Rose Long is filling her husband's unexpired term.

Well May She Smile

What girl wouldn't smile as Frew Donald, 19 (above), of Jackson Heights, L. I., does so charmingly after winning prize of screen test as the best of 3,000 amateur models. Miss Donald sees a film career ahead and possible stardom.

Symbol in Dispute

Lead Kindly Light

Although to the camera's eye this ship seems to have foundered and is half way to Davy Jones' Locker, in reality it is only the Nantucket Lightship wallowing in heavy seas 193 miles off New York. Not the Statue of Liberty, but this ship's friendly light is the first sight of the U. S. enjoyed by incoming passengers from Europe.

Scenes as Floods Swept Eastern Seaboard

With eight persons reported dead and heavy property damage, states along the eastern seaboard are experiencing the worst floods in years, caused by heavy spring rains and the rising of rivers. These scenes show some of the damage wrought: above, wreck of the crack Berkshire Express at Great Barrington, Mass., in which 20 escaped death when floods washed out the roadbed; below, left, workers making an emergency dam on the banks of the Charles River at Waltham, Mass.; right, a marooned truck trapped in the flood at Bound Brook, N. J., the driver and his helper awaiting rescue. (Central Press)

Defense Co-ordinator

Sir Thomas Inskip

In a surprise move Premier Stanley Baldwin appointed Sir Thomas Inskip to the new cabinet post of Minister of Defense with power to co-ordinate the activities of all branches of Britain's armed forces.
